RANDOLPH COUNTY

ILLINOIS RESEARCHER

I am well versed in searching for documents pertaining to Randolph County ancestors, finding books that contain the names and descriptions of early residents, census, births, deaths, marriages, church information, old newspaper articles, and court documents, including court cases, guardianship, conservator, bonds, old wills, unprobated wills, naturalizations, and divorces. It is also possible to find old criminal cases.

Costs for Research:

I charge $15.00 per hour and all postage is paid by the person requesting the research. Send your request by mail with payment for at least one hour of research. If I find nothing, I will charge you nothing.

For $5.00 in advance plus $1.00 postage, I will go to the cemetery and take a picture of your loved ones' gravesite, or old home, or whatever place you choose. I can send this picture, taken with a digital camera, to you on your computer or make a photograph from the camera with my equipment and send it to you.

I live close to Evergreen, St. Mary Catholic, St. John Lutheran, and the old St. Mary Catholic Cemeteries. I could go to other cemeteries, but I would have to charge mileage since gas is so expensive.

I have a number of old wills of Randolph County which I have indexed in the files below and I would be willing to make you a copy and mail it to you, for a nominal fee. Click on the underlined links below to see the names that have wills available.

James Wilson Fulton Family (Ireland, LA, MO, IL)

Posted by: james houchens (ID 5900) Date: May 16, 2004 at 18:22:55

2089 of 2214 Go

The following is a description of a family group photo taken of the Fulton family around 1905. The following paragraph is how it originally appears in the magazine, no changes whatsoever.

"Pictured here is the Fulton family (ca 1905) of Swanwick, Illinois and later St. Louis, Missouri. The mother, Margaret Minerva Peters was the daughter of Charles Ludwig Peters and Ann Jane McNeill who cam from Ireland via New Orleans, Louisiana, 1837. The father, James Wilson Fulton, was the son of Wilson Fulton and Mary Ann Hood, both from Ireland ca. 1837. Picture left to right are: Letty age 11 (1894-1985), Married Thomas; Myrtle age 20 (1885-1960), married McClelland, Morris; Margaret Minerva age 44 (1861-1912); James Wilson age 48 (1857-1915); Howard Gordon age 22 (1883-1970); Laura Belle age 17 (1888-1966), married Morris; and Favorite Ray age 14 (1891-1966). Letty-Lea T. Kersting, Box 89, Chewsville, MD 21721 submitted this photo of her mother's (Letty) family."

If I can be of anymore help to anyone interested in this photo or family please let me know and I will help you as much as possible. Please let me note, I am not at all related to this family.

Sincerely

J. D. Houchens (jdhouchens@yahoo.com)

Dearforgail, or Dearvorgal, which signifies "a purely fair daughter," and is derived from 'dear', a daughter, and 'forgil', purely fair.

Dubhdeara or Dubdara, signifies "a dark-haired beauty;" and is derived from 'daub' (dubh), dark, and 'dara', beautiful. This word is the root of the surnames Dease and Deasy.

Fianna signified "a rosy-complexioned beauty".

Irish Male Names:

ANCIENT IRISH PROPER NAMES.

At this stage it may be well to give for the reader's information the following Irish proper names and surnames both ancient and modern, which was one of the most frequent names of Kings and Chiefs among the Irish, the word signifies fire, the Vesta of the Pagan Irish, and was probably derived from the religious worship of the Druids. This name has been latinized Aedus, Aedanus, Aidus, Aldanus, Mido, and Odo, and is the root of Hughes, Maughn, Hudson, Hudson, etc.

AONGUS, or AENGAS, derived from Aon, excellent, and gus, strength, is the root of Coleman, Macnimness, Innes, Kinis, Hennessy, etc.

ARGUAL may be derived from ard, exalted, and gal, valour; and Arguel, from the proper name Art, and gael (gael), a relative of.

ART signifies noble, great, generous, etc.; and is the root of O'Hart, etc.

BLOSGACH implies great strength, and is the root of the sirname MacBlosgaidh, anglicised MacCloskey.

BRANDUBH, from bran, which here means a raven, and dubh, black. This name was applied to a person whose hair was of a very dark colour.

BRIAN is derived from bri, strength, and an, very great, meaning a warrior of great strength, or brian may be derived from bran, a mountain torrent, which implies powerful strength. Bran, in this meaning of the term, is the root of the sirnames Brain, Brian, Brien, Bryan, Bryant, Byrne, Byron, O'Brien, O'Byrne, etc.

CAIRBRE, from corb, a chariot, and ri, a king, signifying the "ruler of the chariot."

CATHAIR [cahir] from cath, a battle, and ar, slaughter,

CATHAL [cahal] signifies "a great warrior:" and is derived from cath, a battle, and all, great.

CATHBHAR [cah-war] signifies a "helmeted warrior:" from cathbhar, a helmet; but some derive it from cath, a battle, and barr, a chief. This was a favourite name with the chiefs of the O'Donnells of Tirconnell; because, it is thought, of their lineal descent from Conn of the Hundred Battles (in Irish called, Conn Ceadcatha), the 110th Monarch of Ireland, who lived, in the second century. It is, however, probable that they assumed the adfix cath, in commemoration of that illustrious ancestor.

CONALL means friendship; or it may be derived from con, the genitive of cu, a hound (as applied to a swift-footed warrior), and from all, great, or mighty.

CONCHOBHAR signifies the "helping warrior;" and is derived from cu or con, as above, and cobhair [cowir] aid. The name has been angliciaed "Conn," and latinized "Cornelius" and "Conquovarus;" and the root of the sirname Connor, O'Conor, and O'Connor. Wherever cu, a hound, commences the name of any chief, it means, figuratively, "a swift-footed warrior;" as, Cuchonnacht, Cuchullan (Ulladh [ulla], sometimes inflected Ullain: Irish "Ulster"), Cumidhe (Midhe [mee]: Irish, "Meath"), Cu-Ulladh: meaning, respectively, "the warrior of Connaught," "the warrior of Meath," "the warrior of Ulster," etc. It may be here observed that Ulladh, meaning the province of Ulster, but now represented by the counties of Down and Antrim, was so called because it was the territory into which the ancient Ulla, were driven by the three Collas, in A.D. 333. The name Cuchonnacht has been anglicised "Connor" and "Constantine."

CONN (latinized "Quintus," and anglicised Quinn) is derived from conn, wisdom. It is by some derived from cu (genitive con), a hound or swift-footed warrior.

CORMAC signifies "the son of the chariot," etc., and is derived from corb, a chariot, and mac, a son.

DIARMAID signifies the "god of arms"; and is derived from dia, a god, and "armaid" (the genitive plural of arm) of arms. As an epithet, it was applied to a warrior, and was equivalent to one of Homer's heroes-- Dios Krateros Diomedes, or "The god-like fighting Diomede." The name has been anglicised Darby, Dermod, Dermot, and Jeremy or Jeremiah; and became a sirname, as MacDiarmada, anglicised MacDermott, in Ireland, and Mac-Diarmid, in Scotland.

DOMHNALL [donal] is derived from domhan [dowan], the world, and all, mighty; and is the root of the sirnames MacDonald, MacDonnell, Daniel, MacDaniel, and O'Donnell.

DONOCH, DONCHA, or DONCHU is the root of MacDonough, and O'Donohue; and is by some considered to be derived from donn, brown, and cu, a warrior. This name is more properly derived from the Clann Domhnaigh (see the "MacDonongh" pedigree), and is anglicised Donogh and Denis, in Ireland; and Duncan, in Scotland.

EACHMARCACH [oghmarchagh] and Eachmilidh [oghmili] have almost a similar signification: the former is derived from each, a steed, and marcach, a rider, the latter, from each, a steed, and "mileadh," a hero.

EIGNEACHAN [enehan] is derived from eigean, force, and neach [nagh], a person; and may signify "a plundering chief."

EOCHAIDH is derived from each or eoch [och], a steed; and signifies "a knight or horseman." It is pronounced "Eochy," "Ohy," and "Aby." This name has been latinized Achaius.

EOGHAN signifies "a young man," or "youthful warrior" and as a personal name has been anglicised Eugene and Owen.

FEARGAL is derived from fear [fhar], a man (lat. vir), and gal, valour; and signifies "a valiant warrior." This Irish word is the root of the Latin proper name "Virgil," and of the sirnames O'Farrell, O'Ferrall, and Freel; it also became a Christian name in some families, as "Farrell O'Rourke," etc.

FEIDHLIM or FEIDHLIMIDH, signifies "great goodness." It is pronounced "Felim," and "Felimy;" is anglicised Felix, and latinized Fedlimius; it is derived from the Irish feile, hospitality.

FERGUS signifies "a strong warrior," and is derived from fear, a man, and gus, strength.

FIACHA OR FIACH, is derived from fiacha, a hunter; and is a frequent name of Kings and Chiefs, from the earliest ages: probably from the occupation or amusement of hunting, so prevalent in early times.

FIONN means fair-haired, and was a favourite adfix to the names of many Kings and Chiefs.

FLAITHBHEARTACH [flahertagh] is derived from flaith, a chief, and bearthatch, cunning; and means "a clever or cunning chief."

FLANN, blood, signifies "of a red complexion."

GEARMAIDE signifies "the chief with the short cudgel;" and is derived from gearr, short, and maide, a stick.

GIOLLA means "a servant or disciple;" as Giolla-Iosa (anglicised Giles, and latinized Gelasius), "the servant of Jesus:" Giolla-Chriosd, "the servant of Christ;" Giolla-Muire, "the servant of Mary;" Giolla-Paidraig, "the servant of St. Patrick," etc. This name Giolla is latinized "Gulielmus," and anglicised "William."

GUAIRE signifies "noble or excellent."

MAOL was prefixed chiefly to the names of ecclesiastics; and signifies a "bald or tonsured person," who became the spiritual servant or devotee of some saint: as Maol-Iosa, "the servant of Jesus;" Maol-Peadair, "the servant of Peter," Maol-Poil, "the servant of Paul;" Maol-Colum (contracted to "Malcolm,") "the servant of St. Columkille." This word Maol is the root of the sirname Moyles.

MAOLMORDHA is derived from mordha, proud, and maol (as above); it is anglicised Myles.

MAOLSEACHLAINN, signifying "the servant of St. Seachnal" (or Secundinus), the nephew of St. Patrick, was a name frequent amongst the Chiefs and Kings of Meath; it is contracted to Melachlin, which is the Irish for the Christian name Malachy or "Malachi;" and has been applied as a sirname to the latest Kings of Meath and their descendants--namely, O'Melaghlin. Muircheartach is derived from muir, the sea, and ceart, a right; and may signify "a naval warrior," or a chief who established his rights at sea. This name is the root of the sirname Murtagh, Moriarty, Mortimer, etc.

MUIREADHACH (the root of the sirname Murdoch), may be derived from muir, the sea, and eadhach, a protector; it is a name equivalent to that of "admiral," and has been anglicised Maurice and Murray.

NIALL (genitive Neill) signifies a "noble knight" or "champion;" this name is the root of the sirname O'Neill, etc.

RUADHRAIGE or RUDHRAIGE has been anglicised Rory, Roderick, and Rogers; and may be derived from ruadh, valiant, or ruadh, red, and righ, a king: signifying "the valiant, or red-haired king."

TADHG (modernized Teige) originally meant "a poet," it is the root of the sirnames Teague, MacTague, Tighe, Montague, etc.
Tighearnan [tiarnan] is derived from tigherna, a lord; and is the root of Tierney, MacTernan, etc.

TOIRDHEALBHACH [torlogh] is derived from tor, a tower, and dealbhach, shape or form: signifying "a man of tower-like stature." This name has been anglicised Terence, Terrie, Terry, etc.

TOMALTACH is derived from tomailt provisions; and hence came to signify, "a man of hospitality." The root of the word is "tomhas," a measure; and from "tomhas," by metathesis, comes "Thomas."

TORLOCH (from tor, a tower, and leac, a stone) signified a man possessed of "great strength and stature."

TUATHAL [tool] comes from tuatha, territories--meaning one possessed of "large landed property;" it is the root of the sirnames Toole, O'Toole, Tootal, Tolan, etc.

UALGARG meant "a famous and fierce warrior;" it is derived from uaill, famous, and garg, fierce.

Notes for JAMES WILSON FULTON:
OBITUARY: DEATH OF J.W. FULTON
Many Aurora people had known Mr. James ~~W.~~ Fulton had been ailing of late, but was not known until the close of last week how serious was his condition and that prospects for his recovery were very doubtful. Mr. Fulton had been afflicted with a very large carbuncle on his body and, in spite of the efforts of physicians, the painful malady grew more aggraved until a few days before his death blood poison set in. From that time until the fusserer passed away on Sunday afternoon the fight for life was hope less one. While his acquaintance was not as extensive, perhaps, as that of his brothers, he had acquired very good friends, who join with the relatives in sharing the sorrow occasioned by his departure. James Wilson Fulton was born at Swanwick, Illinois, January 22, 1857, and died at Aurora, Nebr., October 31, 1915, aged 58 years, 9 months and days. December 1st, 1880, he was married to Miss Margaret Peters of Swanwick. To them was born five children, all of whom survive the parents. The children are as follows: Howard of Aurora; Mrs. Myrtle McClelland of Kansas City, Mo; Mrs. Laurie Morris of Thompsonville, Ill.; Favorite of Aurora; and Letty of Kansas City. Mr. Fulton's death was unexpected until within a few days of the time when it occurred. Ailing for only a few short weeks and then gone--a sorrowful reminder "That in the midst of life we are in death." A part of Mr. Fulton's life was spent in St. Louis, where he was a member of the Forester's Lodge and also the Emanuel Presbyterian Church. The remains were taken Tuesday morning to Swanwick, Illinois, where they will be laid beside those of his wife who died some three years ago. Brief services were held at the Aurora residence at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning with Rev. J.H. Salsbury, D.D., pastor of the Presbyterian Church, being in charge.

CARD OF THANKS.
We desire to thank all the friends and relatives for their uniform kindness during the illness and at the time of the death of our father and a brother, James Wilson Fulton. Signed, Howard Fulton, Letty Fulton, H.G. Fulton, Mrs. Myrtle F. McClelland, Mrs. Laurie F. Morris, R.G. Fulton, W.G. Fulton.

Note: In this note Howard Fulton and H.G. Fulton are the same person, known as Howard Gordon Fulton; R.G. Fulton is Robert G. Fulton, brother of J.W.; W.G. Fulton is believed to be William W. Fulton, another brother of J.W.

iv. DAVID FULTON, b. 10 September 1859, Swanwick, Perry, Illinois; d. 14 January 1928, Perry County, Illinois; m. ROBERT FULTON COLLAPSES WHILE AT CHURCH SERVICE
Funeral Services For Heart Attack Victim Are Held On Wednesday Afternoon The funeral of Robert G. Fulton was held Wednesday afternoon at the Presbyterian Church in Aurora, with Rev. James B. Brown of the Federated church in charge of the services. Music was furnished by a male quartet. Interment was in Aurora cemetery. The death of Mr. Fulton came as he was attending the Union Church service Sunday evening at the Christian Church. He collapsed against his son-in-law, Oscar Swedburg, near whom he was sitting. He was removed to the pastor's study in the church, and Dr. J.M. Woodard was called at once, but he found no signs of life. Death had been almost instataneous. Mr. Fulton had been troubled with hardening of the arteries, and had used a heart stimulant shortly before he collasped. He was in Auroraa on a visit at the time of his death. Robert Gamble Fulton was born at Swanwick, Perry County, Illinois, on September 18, 1865, and died at Aurora, Nebr., on Sunday, June 20, 1926, at the age of 60 years, 9 months and 2 days. He was one of a family of twelve children, six boys and six girls. He was married on September 5, 1888 to Annie R. McKay. To this union were born four children, Harry, James Wilson, Mrs. Blanche Swedburg, all of Aurora, Nebr., and Mrs. Ida Gressley, of Mason City, Nebraska. When the youngest child was six months old the mother died. He was again married on December 11, 1895, to Nannie A. McDougal, who still survives him. Besides these he leave three brothers, David Fulton of Swanwick, Ill., William Fulton of St. Louis, Mo., Joseph Fulton of Centralia, Ill., and two sisters, Mrs. Eliza Landgraf of Marissa, Ill., and Mrs. Lettie Smiley of Pickneyville, Ill. At the age of twelve, the deceased united with the U.B. Church at Swanwick, Illinois. The family moved to Aurora, Nebraska, in the spring of 1902, living in Aurora eight months then moving on a farm. Soon after this he united with the Aurora Presbyterian Church, where his membership remained until his death. In 1918 he moved to Long Beach, California, where he has made his home for most of the time since.

Pursue the middle name of Gamble- is it a maternal line surname?

Notes for ANNIE MCKAY:

How to obtain copies of original marriage records.

Copies of marriage records included in the Statewide Marriage Index may be obtained from the Illinois Regional Archives Depository System if IRAD holds marriage records for that county or from the county clerk in the county in which the marriage occurred.

- Request a Marriage Record from IRAD
  Illinois Regional Archives Depositories (IRAD) hold original marriage records or microfilm copies for many Illinois counties. The IRAD holdings include marriage records for over seventy of the 102 counties in Illinois. Consult the Local Governmental Records Holdings Database to see if IRAD has marriage records for the county and date of the marriage you are requesting. Type the search term MARRIAGE in the title field to return all marriage records in the IRAD holdings. If IRAD does have marriage records for the county you are searching and for the pertinent time period, write the appropriate IRAD depository and include in your letter all of the information on the marriage given in the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index. Click here for the addresses and telephone numbers of the Illinois Regional Archives Depositories. Marriage record searches are free, but a small copy fee will be billed for records found. IRAD provides uncertified copies only. Certified copies must be requested from the county clerk.

- Request a Marriage Record from a County Clerk
  County clerks are the official custodians of all marriage records recorded in Illinois counties. To obtain copies of marriages found in the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index, write the appropriate county clerk and include in your letter all of the information on the marriage given in the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index. Click here for the addresses of the county clerks in all 102 Illinois counties. Only county clerks may issue certified copies of marriage records. Search and copy fees will vary from one county to another.

Copies of marriage records are not available from the Reference Unit of the Illinois State Archives in Springfield. Please do not send correspondence, e-mail or telephone requests to the Illinois State Archives in Springfield.

Tips on Using the Illinois Statewide Death Index

- Click here for helpful hints on searching the Illinois Statewide Death Index, 1916–1950.
- If you are using Netscape, version 4.79 or below, it may be necessary to select a smaller or larger text size to align the column headings in your browser depending on your monitor's screen resolution. Text size can be changed under the View menu by clicking Increase Font (Ctrl+]) or Decrease Font (Ctrl+[).
- To print the list of deaths from the results screen, set your printer's page orientation to landscape.
- Death records were recorded in the county where the death occurred and not necessarily in the county were the decedent resided. If your search does not find a death record in the county where you expected it to occur, try selecting STATEWIDE in the location option box.
- Death certificates filed after 1947 are not currently available in the Illinois State Archives Reference Room. For deaths occurring after 1947, the death date will appear in RED.
- Click below for information about how to obtain copies of death certificates in Illinois:
  - Copies of death certificates after 1915.
  - Copies of death certificates before 1916.

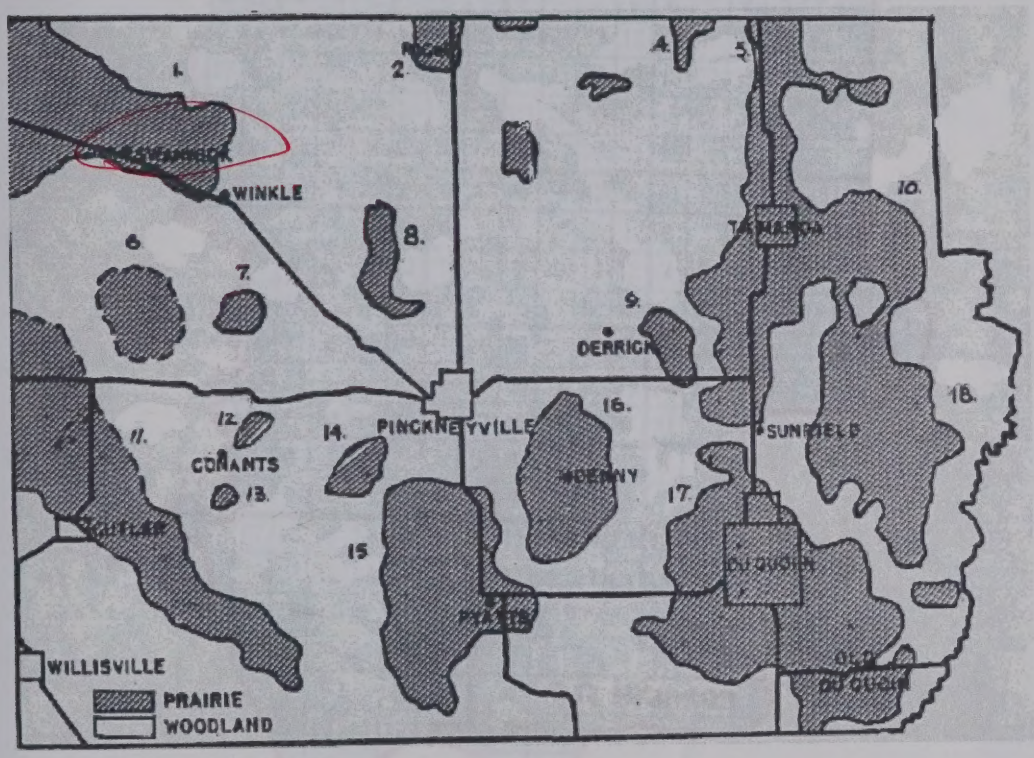
Perry Counties Prairies



Perry county was made up of a series of prairies, which got their names from the first settlers, important incidents etc. This map, made by Julius Swayne, a native of Du Quoin, shows the more important regions. You are sure to note, the county at one time was nearly 75% forested.

By number, they are named below, with the exception of #3, which is the largest 'prairie' between #8 and #4.

1.Grande Cote....2.Round Prairie....3.Hutchings....4.Mud Prairie
5.Upper Paradise....6.Lost Prairie.....7. Brush Prairie....8. Burnt Prairie
9. Upper Holts Prairie.....10.Johnson's(part of Paradise).....11.Six Mile
12.Eaton's Prairie....13.Conant's Prairie.....14. Galum....15.Four Mile Prairie
16.Lower Holt's Prairie.....17.Nine Mile Prairie....18.Lower Paradise Prairie.

OK, I will look for them next time I'm in DuQuoin. Will probably be next week.
Stella

Stella, thank you for replying, I found there are some obituaries in the DuQuin Tribune, listed on the website.
Here are the ones I would like to have:

Name	Date	Year	Father	Mother
Fulton, Annie	27 March	1940	Charles Guenther	Justine Ernest
Fulton, David	14 January	1928	Wilson Fulton	Mary Hood
Fulton, David W.	13 June	1888	not given	not given
Fulton, Mary	27 June	1902	not given	not given
Stuart, Nancy J.	15 December	1936	E.R. Rushing	B. Fulton
Smiley, Lettie Fulton	2 November	1929	Wilson Fulton	Mary Hood

The name is listed Smilty, but actually the surname is SMILEY.

The one obituary I am so wishing to have is for Wilson Fulton (b 7 Sep 1831 Belfast, IRE d. 1 April 1893, buried at Swanwick Cemetery. Searching for his parents' names. He married Mary Ann Hood Fulton b. 26 May 1833 and d. 27 June 1902, she is the 4th obituary on the list above. Hoping her obit gives some clues. They were married in Randolph County 31 October 1850 and have the 1850 census for them in Randolph County. Also have the 1860 census Perry County, Grand Coat Township. Will be checking out the 1870, 1880 census this week. Will also be writing for the marriage license of Mary Ann and Wilson in Randolph County this week.

Are there other newspapers are available in the area that might have Wilson's obit?

I will appreciate any help you may be in getting copies of the obituaries. I will be happy to reimburse you for copies and postage.

Most appreciatively,

Sibley
Stuart, Nancy J.	15 December 1930	E.H. Fanning B.
Fulton
Sibley, Lettie Fulton	2 November 1929	Wilson Fulton
Mary Flood

The one obituary I am so wishing to have is for Wilson Fulton (b ? sep 1831 Belfast, IRE d. 1 April 1895, buried at Swanwick Cemetery, Swanwick, Derbyshire, ENG) married Mary Ann Flood Fulton b. 25 May 1833 and d. 27 June 1902, she is the 4th obituary on the list. Searching for his parents' names. He married Mary Ann Flood Fulton b. above. Hoping her obit gives some clues. They were married in Randolph County 21 October 1850 and have the 1850 census for them in Randolph County. Also have the 1860 census Perry County, Grand Cost Township. Will be checking out the 1870, 1880 census this week. Will also be waiting for the marriage license of Mary Ann and Wilson in Randolph County this week.

Are there other newspapers are available in the area that might have Wilson's obit?

Jean, I sent Nancy an email and she indicated that you might be related to my husband's Fulton Family who lived in Swanwick area. We are researching Wilson Fulton who was married to Mary Ann Hood and is buried in the Swanwick Cemetery. The line is as follows:
Wilson Fulton
James Wilson Fulton, also burined at Swanwick
Howard Gordon Fulton
Lyle Kenney Fulton
Jack Kenney Fulton

I look forward to hearing from you.
Most Sincerely.

Hi,

Don't think that that is my Fulton line but could belong to Jean (keekee$copy'jan.net) Who does this web page--- http://www.parkcountyillinois.net

Dean and I have exchanged this for a while now and so far we can't find a link for them that there may be one for all we know!.

Also, am sending this email to Sheila Runyon because she might know where the newspapers are.

Nancy, I found your email address on the Perry County website. I am researching the Milo(?) Fulton family. Milton is buried in the Swanwick Cemetery. He married Mary Ann Wood 30 October 1851.

Do you happen to know where the old newspapers for the Swanwick area are available?

My husband's line is:—
Milton Fulton
James Milton Fulton
Howard Gordon Fulton
Lyle Kenney Fulton
Jack Kenney Fulton
If this is your line, we would like to correspond with you.

Jean, I sent Nancy an email and she indicated that you might be related to my husband's Fulton Family who lived in Swanwick area. We are researching Wilson Fulton who was married to Mary Ann Hood and is buried in the Swanwick Cemetery. The line is as follows:
Wilson Fulton
James Wilson Fulton, also burined at Swanwick
Howard Gordon Fulton
Lyle Kenney Fulton
Jack Kenney Fulton

I look forward to hearing from you.
Most Sincerely.

Family Histories at RCGS

3116 WILLIAMS
3117 WILLIAMS-BENNINGTON
3118 WILSON - SPARTA

I found this information on the Randolph County Illinois Genealogical Society Website, I would like copies of the above families histories. Would you please contact me with the amount charged for these histories if they connect to the families below.

I am looking for information on Wilson Fulton and Mary Ann Hood.
WILSON FULTON b. IRE 7 Sep 1831 d. 1 April 1893 buried at Swanwick Cemetery, Perry Co.
MARY ANN HOOD b. IRE 27 June 1902 d. 27 June 1902 buried at Swanwick also.

In the 1850 census Town4 So R5 West of Randolph County, Wilson FULTON (age 18) is living with Mary WILLIAMS (Age 45, Occupation Farmer) and Mary Fulton (age 20). All three were listed as born in Ireland.

Are there naturalizations papers for this family? If so, would these be filed at the County Seat?

Wilson FULTON married Mary Ann HOOD on 31 October 1851 in Randolph County, I would like a copy of the marriage license.

Do not know who Mary Ann's parents are. However, living 5 residences away from Wilson and Mary WILLIAMS is the family of James Hood (age 40), Elizabeth (age 35), Mary (age 17) and Elizabeth (age 13). This could be Mary Ann who married Wilson????

Is there an obituary for James HOOD or Elizabeth HOOD?

Sincerely,

Barbara Walcher Fulton

I am researching my husband's family and am looking for an obituary for Wilson Fulton, d. 1 April 1893. He lived in the Coulterville area and is buried in Swanwick Cemetery. Have not found his obituary in the Perry County area. Will appreciate a copy if found in newspapers of that area. I will be happy to reimburse for copies and postage.
Most sincerely,

I am researching my husband's family and am looking for an obituary for Wilson Fulton, d. 1 April 1893. He lived in the Coulterville area and is buried in Swanwick Cemetery. Have not found his obituary in the Perry County area. Will appreciate a copy if found in newspapers of that area. I will be happy to reimburse for copies and postage.

Obituary listings from the DuQuoin Tribune

These obit listings are from the DuQuoin Tribune Newspaper. They begin with 1867 and continue through June 1925. Sometimes more than one listing is given for a name, showing that it was in more than one edition of the paper. They are not the complete obituary. Names, age, date of publication only. A full copy of the obituary is available from the Belleville Library. Send a stamped, self addressed envelope along with $2.50 for EACH obituary, include ALL information shown, to:

Belleville Public Library
121 East Washington
Belleville, IL 62220

Many THANKS Cindy!!!

NOTE!!!

Some of these obits are now listed on this site, either in its entirety or a death notice. Eventually ALL of them will be listed here, and I ask your help for this. If you have sent for copies, would you PLEASE contribute a copy here also? Many THANKS to those of you who have already done so.

Allyson, sorry to take so long in replying - our phones were out for three days last week and, of course, no Internet then either!

We do not have much on the Fulton line and would be very happy if you would contact your Fulton cousins for further info. There just maybe a connection! Our snail mail address will be at the end of this note, in case they do not have Internet access.

Appreciate your prompt reply and you helping us to find other information.

Sincerely, Barbara and Jack Fulton, 2004 SE Osage, Bartlesville, OK 74003

Fulton is not a name in my ancestry, but I have a great-aunt who married one. The only info I have is as follows --

Frank Fulton married Jennie Hazel Brennan in St. Clair County, IL 5 Aug 1908. I have their wedding photo, but it's not very clear. If you would like information on their descendants, I can call my Fulton cousins and get it for you.

Nancy, so happy to hear from you. At this time we are very limited on the information on our Fulton families, so are hoping that we may make a connection.

We will keep your information in our file and if we find a connection we will be contacting you. We are also hoping that you will do the same.

Most sincerely,

Hi,

Thanks so much for your Fulton information. Jean and I have been trying to tie our two Perry CO. Fulton families together for a while now with no concrete links yet. My ancestor was James Harvey Fulton of Gallia CO. OHio (family originally from Augusta CO. VA) who married Mary Ann Viers. Their daughter was Malinda V. Fulton who married my great grandfather Matthew T. Helvey. Malinda and the Viers family are buried in Galum Baptist Cemetery near P'Ville where the Fulton family--Wilson's family, I think-- (originally from NC) are also buried. My Fultons are also connected to the ones in Hamilton CO. IL. Would be glad to share.

Tips on Using the Illinois Statewide Death Index

- Click here for helpful hints on searching the Illinois Statewide Death Index, 1916–1950.
- If you are using Netscape, version 4.79 or below, it may be necessary to select a smaller or larger text size to align the column headings in your browser depending on your monitor's screen resolution. Text size can be changed under the View menu by clicking Increase Font (Ctrl+]) or Decrease Font (Ctrl+[).
- To print the list of deaths from the results screen, set your printer's page orientation to landscape.
- Death records were recorded in the county where the death occurred and not necessarily in the county were the decedent resided. If your search does not find a death record in the county where you expected it to occur, try selecting STATEWIDE in the location option box.
- Death certificates filed after 1947 are not currently available in the Illinois State Archives Reference Room. For deaths occurring after 1947, the death date will appear in RED.
- Click below for information about how to obtain copies of death certificates in Illinois:
  - Copies of death certificates after 1915.
  - Copies of death certificates before 1916.

Tips on Using the Illinois Statewide Death Index

- Click here for helpful hints on searching the Illinois Statewide Death Index, 1916–1950.
- If you are using Netscape, version 4.79 or below, it may be necessary to select a smaller or larger text size to align the column headings in your browser depending on your monitor's screen resolution. Text size can be changed under the View menu by clicking Increase Font (Ctrl+]) or Decrease Font (Ctrl+[).
- To print the list of deaths from the results screen, set your printer's page orientation to landscape.
- Death records were recorded in the county where the death occurred and not necessarily in the county were the decedent resided. If your search does not find a death record in the county where you expected it to occur, try selecting STATEWIDE in the location option box.
- Death certificates filed after 1947 are not currently available in the Illinois State Archives Reference Room. For deaths occurring after 1947, the death date will appear in RED.
- Click below for information about how to obtain copies of death certificates in Illinois:
  - Copies of death certificates after 1915.
  - Copies of death certificates before 1916.

Weak or Unclear Queries

LEGGETT anyone? Can anyone tell me anything about the Leggett family?

This is the genealogical equivalent of placing an ad in the newspaper's classified section that says, "Used car for sale. Please call for make, model, condition, and asking price." You might get a response, but don't count on it. See the improved example below for better wording.

Notso Clever Fri Feb 31 09:30:00 1999
ZAHM; anywhere; anytime. Interested in ANY information about anyone named Zahm, worldwide.

This message is no more informative than the first example.

If you're just starting to research your own family, contacting everyone with that name will soon overwhelm you, and isn't likely to help you find your immediate ancestry. Even if you think your name is extremely rare, there are probably lots of people that share it with you.

If you really are interested in making a comprehensive collection of all the Zahms, tell us enough about your project to encourage other genealogists to contribute their research, as shown in the improved example, next section.

Nother Knownot Fri Feb 31 09:30:00 1999
CROUCH; Ohio, USA; anytime. I'm looking for information on my father's side of the family. He is an only child and his father died when I was 10. There are no family members to get any information. Can anyone tell me about the Crouches?

A little bit better than the above examples, but you have valuable clues that you're not sharing with us.

Your grandfather died when you were 10. This gives you the date of his death. But remember, by internet, we have no idea if your age is closer to 15 or to 95. We have to guess grandpa died someplace

> Can anyone tell me about the Crouches?

A little bit better than the above examples, but you have valuable clues that you're not sharing with us.

Your grandfather died when you were 10. This gives you the date of his death. But remember, by internet, we have no idea if your age is closer to 15 or to 95. We have to guess grandpa died somewhere between 5 and 85 years ago. Since most men have children between the ages of 20 and 50, we can guess that he was probably between 50 and 110 years old when he died. He might have been born anywhere from 55 to 195 years ago!

So tell us his name, tell us the year he died, and make an estimate of his age so we can tell about when he was born, as in the improved example later on.

> Doesnt Getit Fri Feb 31 09:30:00 1999
> SMITH/JONES/WASHINGTON/LEE/DENZEL/WINDSOR; England, then Ohio, USA; 1600- . Have information on these families: Smith in England 17th century. Jones in Virginia by 1800 moved to Ohio 1850's. Washington in New York colonial times... etc.

This query gives a cluttered opening line that's hard to understand. Use a separate article for each surname, and give us more details, as in example 1. Thousands of people will look at your first line to decide whether to read the message - make it count. Take the time to tell something about your research and your questions - and put it in a readable format so readers will want to help you.

Better Queries

The idea is to encourage people to reply. They are more likely to do so if they recognize your family as related to people they have researched. Include some details about when and where your family lived. Always include:

Name
Place

and put them near the beginning. If you don't know exact dates, estimate. For USGenWeb queries, you should include the county name in its appropriate connection for your information. Moderators may not post queries if they don't seem appropriate to a specific county. Not everyone can remember the name of every tiny town in a county, and many moderators coordinate several counties at once.

It is also a good idea to follow the common practice of putting each surname in all capital letters. This helps the reader who is scanning for familiar names, and will catch his or her attention if there is a connection.

Smarter Searcher Fri Feb 31 09:30:00 1999
LEGGETT Rufus; Columbus, Cherokee Co, Kansas, USA; 1860-1940. My great-grandfather Rufus LEGGETT died in Columbus, Kansas when my mother was a little girl, sometime in the 1930's. She thinks he was in his 70's then, maybe somewhat younger. I'm looking for information on when and where he was born, as well as his parents.

Metoo Metoo Fri Feb 31 09:30:00 1999
ZAHM/SAUM; anywhere; anytime. I'm studying the ZAHM family worldwide. I've traced my own line to villages in Lorraine, France near the German border in the 1700-1828 timeframe. I have information on branches of the family in Clay Co, IN, as well as places in IL, KS, OH, NY, VA, and also Lorraine and Saarland. Interested in contacting any other members of the family to share information.

Smart Researcher Fri Feb 31 09:30:00 1999
CROUCH; Franklin Co., Ohio, USA; 1840-1930. I'm looking for information about my grandfather, William CROUCH. He died in Columbus, OH in the late 1920's. We think he was in his late 80's then. My Dad, James CROUCH, was his only son, born in Columbus, OH about 1892. I'm interested in finding William CROUCH's wife and parents.

Now you've given us enough clues that someone might recognize the family, or point you to the right resources for the time and place so you can learn more about the family.

Remember, too, that USGenWeb queries are handled by volunteers. Please be patient. Allow sufficient time for your query to appear on the appropriate page(s). And if it needs updating or should be removed, let the county coordinator know about that too.

Good luck and enjoy hunting out your elusive ancestors!

Tips on Using the Illinois Statewide Marriage Index

- To avoid text wrapping to multiple lines, it may be necessary to select a smaller text size in your browser depending on your monitor's screen resolution. In most browsers, text size can be changed under the View menu.
- To print the list of marriages from the results screen, set your printer's page orientation to landscape.
- Illinois marriages were not required to be performed in the county of the bride's or groom's residence. If your search does not find a marriage in the county you expected it to occur, try selecting STATEWIDE in the location option box.
- The Illinois Statewide Marriage Index is an on-going project and does not currently include marriage records for all counties in Illinois or complete date spans for some counties.

Description:
Land sales from the Illinois public domain were recorded by a variety of persons employed by the federal, state or local governments. The records in this database were transferred to the Illinois State Archives and detail the sale of over 54,000 square miles of public land. Each entry includes the purchaser's name, purchase date, number of acres, price per acre, and in some cases the purchaser's sex and residence. Researchers will find information regarding over 538,000 land sales from the 19th Century. For those seeking ancestors from Illinois, this can be an extremely helpful source of information. For a list of abbreviations used in this database, please refer to the following URL on the Illinois State Archives website Abbreviations.

Description:
Among the defining conflicts in the history of the United States, the Revolutionary War touched the lives of millions of people. This database is a collection of records kept by the National Archives listing men who fought for the colonies during the war. Transferred from microfilm to electronic format by Direct Data Capture, it contains the names of nearly 426,000 individuals. Each record provides the soldier's name, company and unit of service. Additionally, rank information is included along with box and roll numbers in the National Archives to aid the researcher in obtaining copies of the original record. For Ancestry.com patrons seeking Revolutionary War ancestors, this can be an enlightening source of information.

Extended Description:
The records in this database were taken from Record Group 93 M246 in the National Archives (a total of 138 rolls of microfilm).

This database contains only those records available in the National Archives and may not include all persons involved in the American Revolutionary War.*Compiled Military Service Records (CMSR)*Each volunteer soldier has one Compiled Military Service Record (CMSR) for each regiment in which he served. The CMSR contains basic information about the soldier's military career, and it is the first source the researcher should consult. The CMSR is an envelope (a jacket) containing one or more cards. These cards typically indicate that the soldier was present or absent during a certain period of time. Other cards may indicate the date of enlistment and discharge, amount of bounty paid him, and other information such as wounds received during battle or hospitalization for injury or illness. The soldier's place of birth may be indicated; if foreign born, only the country of birth is stated. The CMSR may contain an internal jacket for so-called "personal papers" of various kinds. These may include a copy of the soldier's enlistment paper, papers relating to his capture and release as a prisoner of war, or a statement that he had no personal property with him when he died. Note, however, that the CMSR rarely indicates battles in which a soldier fought; that information must be derived from other sources.
A CMSR is as complete as the surviving records of an individual soldier or his unit. The War Department compiled the CMSRs from the original muster rolls and other records some years after the war to permit more rapid and efficient checking of military and medical records in connection with claims for pensions and other veterans' benefits. The abstracts were so carefully prepared that it is rarely necessary to consult the original muster rolls and other records from which they were made. When the War Department created CMSRs at the turn of the century, information from company muster rolls, regimental returns, descriptive books, hospital rolls, and other records was copied verbatim onto cards. A separate card was prepared each time an individual name appeared on a document. These cards were all numbered on the back, and these numbers were entered onto the outside jacket

Finding Public Land Sales in Illinois

GRAPHICS CAPABILITY IS REQUIRED IN THIS EXERCISE.

For the sake of illustration, let's assume that you have searched the Illinois Public Land Sale database to find land purchased by Richard F. Beadles. [see note]

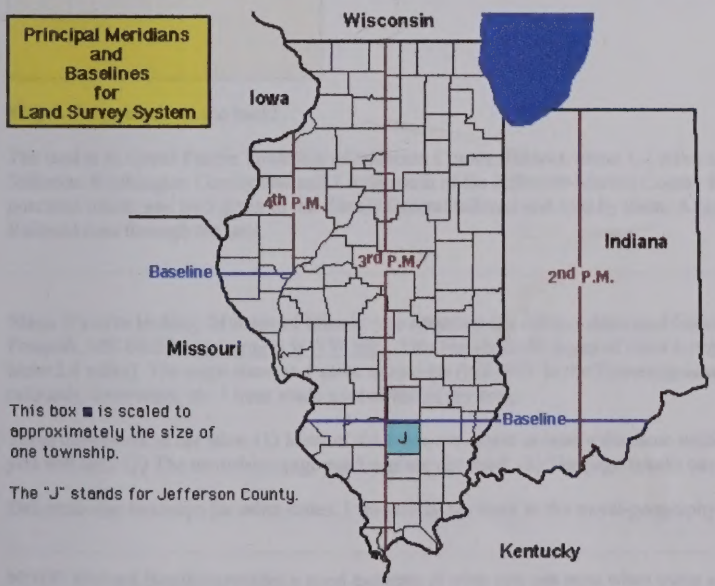
The system returns:

Purchaser:	BEADLES RICHARD F	Record ID:	424214
Date:	03/24/1862
Acres:	80
Price:	$11.00
Type of sale:	Railroad (RR)
County:	41
Section:	8	Section Part:	NWNE
Township:	01S	Range:	01E
Meridian:	3	Purchaser Res:
Arch. Vol. No:	791	Vol. Page No.:	087
Cash warrant code:		Record corrected:	0

This record shows a discrepancy between the acreage and the land description. The land description is the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter of section 8 or 1/16 of the 640 acres in the section. This is 40 acres not 80. For remainder of the discussion, assume that the acreage is 40. The database says that the land description is:

> Northwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter of Section 8 in Township 1 South, Range 1 East of the Third Principal Meridian [Jefferson County]

Step 1. Find the Third Principal Meridian and the Baseline which crosses it on the map of Illinois.



Step 2. Note that the land is in Township 1 South [T1S], Range 1 East [R1E], which is the first township south of [below] the Baseline and the first township east [right] of the Meridian.

Step 3. The database reported that the land was in Jefferson County, so you should expect to be in the box marked with the J.

Step 4. On the township map provided, locate Section 8 in T1S R1E.

GRAPHICS CONTRIBUTED BY DEBRA MEAD

For the sake of illustration, let's assume that you have searched the Illinois Public Land Sale database to find land purchased by Richard P. Beadles. [See note]

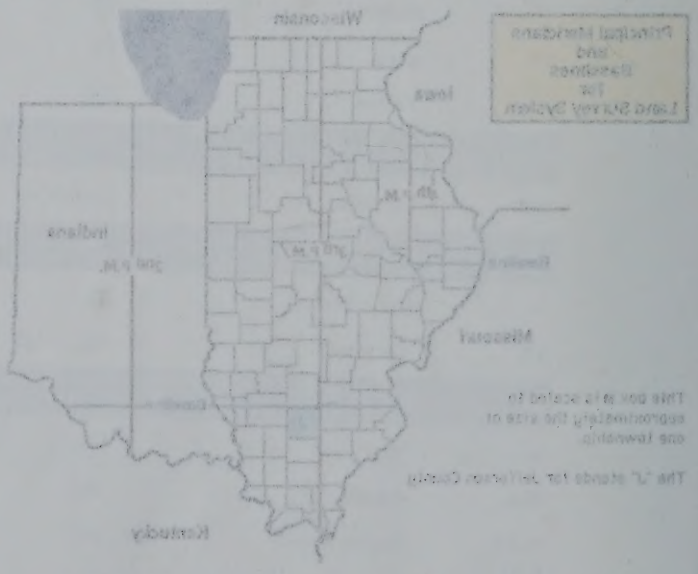
This record shows a discrepancy between the acreage and the land description. The land description is the northwest quarter of the northeast quarter of Section 8 or 1/16 of the 640 acres in the section. This is 40 acres, not 80. For remainder of the discussion, assume that the acreage is 80. The database says that the land description is:

Northwest Quarter of the Meridian Quarter of Section 8 in Township 1 South, Range 1 East of the Third Principal Meridian [Jefferson County]

Step 1. Find the Third Principal Meridian and the Baseline which crosses it on the map of Illinois.



Step 2. Note that the land is in Township 1 South ("1S"), Range 1 East [01E], which is the first township south of [below] the Baseline and the first township east [right] of the Meridian.

Step 3. The database reported that the land was in Jefferson County, so you should expect to be in the box marked with the J.

Step 4. On the township map provided, locate Section 8 in T1S R1E.

35	36	31	32	33	34	35	36	31	32
2	1	6	5	4	3	2	1	6	5
11	12	7	8	9	10	11	12	7	8
14	13	18	17	16	15	14	13	18	17
23	24	19	20	21	22	23	24	19	20

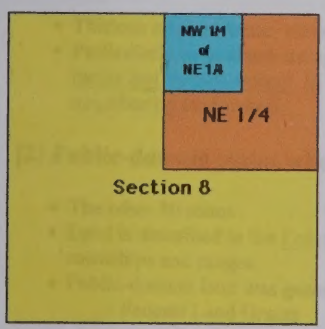
35	36	31	32	33	34	35	36	31	32
2	1	6	5	4	3	2	1	6	5

This shows 1 complete township [in yellow and blue] and portions of 8 other townships [in gray].

Step 2. Now use the section map provided to first find the Northeast Quarter of Section 8 [orange]. Then find the Northwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter [blue].



Step 6. Pat yourself on the back!

The land is in Grand Prairie Township of Jefferson County, Illinois, about 1.2 miles east of US Rte 21 where it runs along the Jefferson-Washington County line and 1 mile south of the Jefferson-Marion County line. The database shows the land as a railroad purchase which was land given to the Illinois Central railroad and sold by them. A recent map shows that a line of the Illinois Central Railroad runs through the land.

Maps If you're looking for maps of Illinois, you might try the Illinois Atlas and Gazetteer [DeLorme Mapping, PO Box 298-6600, Freeport, ME 04032 - DeLorme's WWW site]. This has about 80 pages of color topographical maps on the scale of 1:120,000 [1 inch=2.4 miles]. The maps show and name townships (but NOT in the Township-Range System described above), roads, communities, railroads, waterways, etc. I have made a lot of use of my copy.

Three drawbacks of the atlas: (1) Most of the roads are drawn at nearly the same width, so it's difficult to tell what type of road surface you will find. (2) The township-range markings are not used. (3) The page breaks can make it difficult to see what is adjacent.

DeLorme also has maps for other states. I frequently see them in the travel-geography sections of bookstores as well as in some libraries.

NOTE: Richard Beadles provides a good example of what you can miss when using a computer database. There is only one entry under Richard F. Beadles, but there are two more under Richard F. Beadle. Both purchases are in T1S R1E of 3rd P.M. [Grand Prairie Twp] of Jefferson County. In a printed copy of the database it is easier to scan for variations in spelling. In a searchable computer database, you may need your imagination to find all of the entries.

This shows 1 square township in yellow and nine red portions of 8 other townships for grid

Step 2. Now use the section map provided to find the Northeast Quarter of Section 8 [orange]. Then find the Northwest Quarter of the Northeast Quarter [blue].

Step 3. Put yourself on the land!

The land is in Grand Prairie Township of Jefferson County, Illinois, about 1.2 miles east of US Rte 21 where it runs along the Jefferson-Washington County line and 1 mile south of the Jefferson-Marion County line. The database shows the land as a railroad purchase which was land given to the Illinois Central railroad and sold by them. A topo map shows that a line of the Illinois Central Railroad runs through the land.

Maps If you're looking for maps of Illinois, you might try the Illinois Atlas and Gazetteer [DeLorme Mapping, PO Box 298, Freeport, ME 04032 - Dial (area) 865-4171]. This has about 80 pages of color topographical maps on the scale of 1:120,000 (1 inch=2 miles). The topo shows and many townships (but NOT in the Township-Range-Section description above), roads, communities railroads, waterways, etc. I have made a lot of use of my copy.

These viewbacks of the atlas (1) Most of the roads are dirt or nearly the same width, so it's difficult to tell what type of road across you will find. (2) The township-range markings are not used. (3) The page breaks can make it difficult to see what is adjacent.

DeLorme also has maps for other states. I frequently use them in the travel-geography sections of bookstores as well as in some libraries.

NOTE: Rickard Books provides a good example of what you can miss when using a computer database. There is only one entry under Richard F. Brooks. But there are two more under Richard F. Brooks. Both purchases are in T7S R1E of 3rd P.M. [Grand Prairie Twp] of Jefferson County; in a printed copy of the database it is easier to scan for variations in spelling. In a searchable computer database, you may need your imagination to find all of the entries.

Legal Land Descriptions in the USA

For further discussion of Land Records in the United States, see the chapter by Thorndale in The Source: A Guidebook of American Genealogy (1984) edited by Arlene Eakle and Johni Cerny, Ancestry, Inc., Salt Lake City, UT.

In terms of land distribution, the states fall into two classes:

[1] State-land states where the state made the land grants.

- Thirteen original states, Hawaii, Kentucky, Maine, Tennessee, Texas, Vermont, and W.Virginia.
- Particularly in southern states where a gridded survey was not made, legal descriptions are generally in the indiscriminate metes and bounds system. In this system, the plot is described in terms of the location of trees, streams, rocks and neighboring landowners.

[2] Public-domain states where the federal government made the land grants.

- The other 30 states
- Land is described in the Federal Township and Range System which uses a surveyed system of meridians, baselines, townships and ranges.
- Public-domain land was generally obtained by:
    - Federal Land Grants
        - Purchased
        - Homesteaded
    - Military Bounty Lands
        - Revolutionary War in U.S. Military District of Ohio
        - War of 1812 in U.S. Military Districts in Illinois, Arkansas, and Missouri
        - Miscellaneous, including the Mexican War

Computer Programs for Drawing Plat Maps

For further discussion of Land Records in the United States, see Land and Tax Records by William Thorndale in The Source: A Guidebook of American Genealogy (1984) edited by Arlene Eakle and Johni Cerny, Ancestry, Inc., Salt Lake City, UT.

Based on syllabus pages for "Putting Your Ancestors in Context: Using Computer Mapping and Platting Software," presented by Patricia Law Hatcher, CG, and Birdie Monk Holsclaw at the 1995 Conference of the Federation of Genealogical Societies in Seattle. Used with permission of speakers. Revisions by Steve Broyles and Birdie Holsclaw

Black Oak Mapper 6.0

- Black Oak Systems, 7472 Mt. Sherman Road, Longmont, CO 80503-8678.
- IBM/compatible
- Compiles single "metes and bounds" tracts on dot matrix and laser printers, or to popular graphic file formats. Replaces and updates previous freeware version.

DeedMapper 3.0

- Direct Line Software, 71 Neshobe Road, Newton, MA 02168.
- Direct Line's WWW Site
- Windows95/98/NT; see the WWW site for details
- Compiles and prints single or multiple "metes and bounds" tracts on screen or printer, or to popular graphic file formats; topographic map overlays available at additional charge.

Deed Plotter + and Deed Plotter + for Windows

- Greenbrier Graphics, Inc., 438 Lockbridge Road, Meadow Bridge, WV 25976.
- IBM/compatible.
- Compiles single or multiple tracts on screen or printer; allows rotation. Handles "metes and bounds" as well as "rectangular" surveys. Curves and labels allowed in Deed Plotter + Series II

Farmer's Plotter 2.0

- Older Kids & Co., 8547 E. Arapahoe Road #J144, Greenwood Village, CO 80112. NOTE: THE FORWARDING ORDER HAS EXPIRED ON THIS ADDRESS. I DO NOT HAVE A CURRENT ADDRESS FOR THIS COMPANY.
- Macintosh.
- Generates "metes and bounds" and "rectangular" survey maps.
- Notes from the Webmaster: application size about 680 K, requires System 6.0.8 or higher and 2 MB of RAM. Based on HyperCard (TM) 2.1, but is stand-alone--Hypercard is not needed to run it.

LANDcalc 1.13

- COMPUneering, 113 McCabe Crescent, Thornhill, Ontario L4J 2S6 CANADA.
- Macintosh.
- Comprehensive map drawing program for surveyors, very technical. Compiles single or multiple tracts on screen or printer; many labeling options. More features available in LANDesign, $595.

L-Plot 5.1.

- Lan/Scan, Inc., P.O. Box 6863, Abilene, TX 79608-6863.
- IBM/compatible.
- Can compile single or multiple tracts on screen or printer (dot matrix and laser); allows rotation and labelling. Handles both "metes and bounds" and "rectangular" surveys.

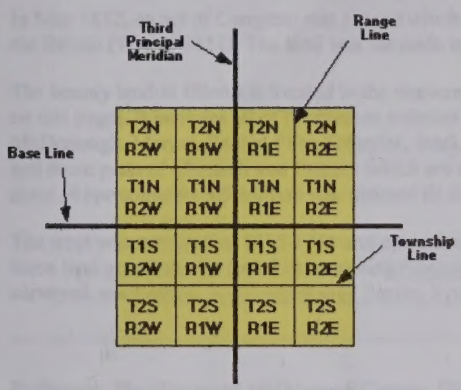
Graphical Display of the Federal Township and Range System

The largest grouping is the township which is named in reference to a Principal Meridian (P.M.) and a Baseline. T2N, R1E refers to Township 2 North (of the Baseline), Range 1 East (of the Principal Meridian).



Within each township are 36 sections, each one mile square. Each section contains 640 acres. The sections are numbered from 1 to 36 in the following order. [Text only display]

35	36	31	32	33	34	35	36	31	32
2	1	6	5	4	3	2	1	6	5
11	12	7	8	9	10	11	12	7	8
14	13	18	17	16	15	14	13	18	17
23	24	19	20	21	22	23	24	19	20
26	25	30	29	28	27	26	25	30	29
35	36	31	32	33	34	35	36	31	32
2	1	6	5	4	3	2	1	6	5

Within each section, the land is refered to as half and quarter sections. A one-sixteenth division is called a quarter of a quarter, as in the NW1/4 of the NW1/4. The descriptions are read from the smallest division to the largest.

The Military Tract

In May 1812, an act of Congress was passed which set aside bounty lands as payment to volunteer soldiers for the War against the British (War of 1812). The land was set aside in the present states of Arkansas, Michigan and Illinois.

The bounty land in Illinois is located in the western part of the state between the Illinois and Mississippi Rivers [see map below on this page]. It includes all of the present counties of Adams, Brown, Calhoun, Fulton, Hancock, Henderson, Knox, McDonough, Mercer, Peoria, Pike, Schuyler, Stark, and Warren Counties. It also includes part of Henry and Bureau Counties, and those parts of Marshall and Putnam which are on the west side of the Illinois River. The area comprises about 5.4 Million acres. Approximately 3.5 Million was deemed fit for cultivation and was set aside for military bounties.

The tract was surveyed in 1815-1816 and opened to settlement. Then warrants for land were issued by the government. Many of these land grants can be found by searching Illinois Public Land Sales. For an explanation of the way the land in these grants are surveyed, see Federal Township-Range Survey System.

Land sales from the public domain were recorded by field employees of the U.S. General Land Office, state and local officials, and clerks of the Illinois Central Railroad. These records were transferred to the Illinois State Archives for permanent retention in 1957. Because the records are arranged by legal description, a database was developed to allow the records to be searched by name.

The database contains information about nearly 550,000 land sales from the 54,740 square miles of the public domain sold within Illinois. Each purchase entry includes the purchaser's name, purchase date, number of acres, price per acre, numeric code indicating the county in which the land is located, legal description (township, section, range), volume and page numbers of original entry, and variously, the sale type, and the purchaser's sex and residence.

Photocopies of Original Illinois Land Records

As a result of limitations on research time, Archives staff can photocopy no more than 2 entries per request. Researchers should know, however, that the registers contain no additional information with two exceptions.

1. When the word "warrant" appears in the column headed "Total Price," the purchaser used military bounty land warrants instead of cash for payment. For the 1817-1819 warrants, the registers also include warrant number and military corps or regiment in which the veteran served. For the 1847-1877 warrants, the register provides warrant certificate number and date, and the name of the original recipient of the warrant, possibly someone other than the purchaser. Recipients of military bounty land warrants often sold them, and in such cases the names of purchaser and original recipient will be different.

- When the name of a state other than Illinois is found in the column headed "County or State of Purchaser," a city or township may also be given.

How to request photocopies

To receive copies of a record from the Field General Land Office registers:

- Provide the complete information for the land transaction that is found in the Illinois Public Domain Land Tract Sales database entry.

- Enclose the appropriate fee or provide credit card information. Illinois law requires the Illinois State Archives to charge $2.00 per page for photocopies of original land records. Non-Illinois residents will receive up to 2 photocopies of land records as part of the $10 out-of-state research fee.

The Illinois State Archives no longer bills for photocopies. Orders for photocopies of entries from the Field General Land Office registers must be pre-paid. Please make checks or money orders payable to: Illinois Secretary of State. The Archives also accepts Visa, MasterCard and Discover/Novus credit cards by mail, telephone or fax in payment for photocopies of entries from the Field General Land Office registers.

Additional Information about Illinois Land Sales

The Illinois Public Domain Land Tract Sales Database contains information on the initial sales of public domain lands made in federal land district offices. Sales of federal lands resulted in land patents being issued at a later date by the U.S. General Land Office; patents for lands donated by the federal government to the state (i.e., school, saline, seminary, canal, and other internal improvement lands) were issued by the state. Lands donated to the Illinois Central Railroad never were conveyed by patents; clerks for that company executed deeds for those land sales. Today federal land patent records are maintained by the Bureau of Land Management (Eastern State Office), 7450 Boston Boulevard, Springfield, VA 22153.

Click here to search the Bureau of Land Management Federal Land Patents database.

Further, the National Archives maintains land sale case files for those sales which resulted in federal land patents being issued. Inquiries for those case files should be addressed to: National Archives, Textual Reference Branch-Land (NWDT1), Washington, D.C., 20408. In writing the National Archives provide that agency the full entry referenced in the Illinois Public Domain Land Tract Sales Database as well as the type of land entry, the name of the land office where the business was conducted, and the final certificate records. Non-Illinois residents will receive up to 2 photocopies of land records as part of the $10 out-of-state research fee.

Determining Location

The exact location of a land purchase may be found on the Illinois Public Domain Land Tract Sales map by using the legal description given in the database entry. The map is provided in a PDF (Portable Document Format) file, which can be viewed or printed using your Web browser and Adobe Acrobat Reader software. Macintosh and Windows versions of Acrobat Reader may be downloaded free of charge from Adobe.

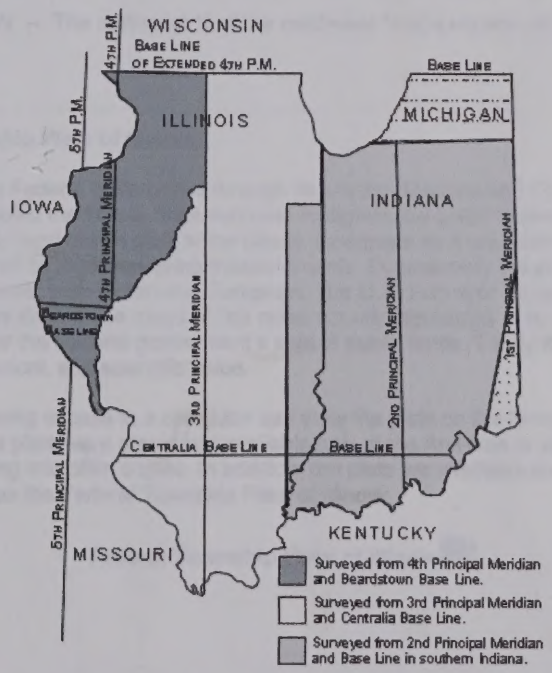
The rectangular coordinate system of surveys divides Illinois into 36-square mile townships that are located in ranges west of the 2nd Principal Meridian or east or west of the 3rd or the 4th Principal Meridian. Townships are further located as north or south of base lines that serve as reference points for each meridian.



Refer to the legal description from the database entry to find the meridian for the land purchase. Then use the numbers along the appropriate meridian and base line to count north or south of the base line and east or west of the principal meridian to locate the township in which the land is situated. For example, if the legal description is Township 28N, Range 6E 3rd P.M., begin at the intersection of the 3rd Principal Meridian and the Centralia Base Line and count 28 townships north and 6 ranges east to find a township in the middle of Livingston County.

This township will be divided into 36 sections of 640 acres. Each section is further subdivided into quarter sections, half-quarter sections, or quarter-quarter sections. Examples of these subdivisions within a township appear below. Use the figures below to determine location within a township and within a section.

Federal Township Plats of Illinois

A grant from the Federal government through its Library Services and Technology Act (LSTA) has enabled the Illinois State Archives to digitize the 3,457 federal township plats of Illinois. These hand drawn plats show Illinois' landscape as it was before American settlement as well as legal surveying measurements. Occasionally the plats indicate man-made features, both Indian and European. The U.S. Surveyor General and his deputy surveyors drew these maps of "six miles square" townships or fractional townships in preparation for the Federal government's sale of public lands. Today Illinois' plats still have legal, historical, and scientific value.

Now anyone having access to a computer can view the plats on the Illinois State Archives Web site. These plats were previously available only at the Archives or at those few institutions having microfilm copies. In addition, the plats are available on a CD edition. Refer to the legal description from the database entry to find the meridian for the land purchase. Then use the numbers along the appropriate meridian and base line to count north or south of the base line and east or west of the principal meridian to locate the township in which the land is situated. For example, if the legal description is Township 28N, Range 6E 3rd P.M., begin at the intersection of the 3rd Principal Meridian and the Centralia Base Line and count 28 townships north and 6 ranges east to find a township in the middle of Livingston County.

This township will be divided into 36 sections of 640 acres. Each section is further subdivided into quarter sections, half-quarter sections, or quarter-quarter sections. Examples of these subdivisions within a township appear below. Use the figures below to determine location within a township and within a section.

Then use the numbers along the appropriate meridian and base line to count north or south of the base line and east or west of the principal meridian to locate the township in which the land is situated. For example, if the legal description is Township 28N Range 6E 3rd P.M., begin at the intersection of the 3rd Principal Meridian and the Central's Base Line and count 28 townships north and 6 ranges east to find a township in the middle of Livingston County.

This township will be divided into 36 sections of 640 acres. Each section is further subdivided into quarter sections, half-quarter sections, or quarter-quarter sections. Examples of these subdivisions within a township appear below. Use the figures below to determine location within a township and within a section.

Visiting a Depository

Researchers may visit an IRAD depository and examine the records that are available. The seven IRAD depositories are open Monday through Friday. Depositories are closed on Saturdays and Sundays, state holidays, and any weekdays the university libraries are closed. Hours are reduced in June and July. Researchers are urged to call before planning a visit to a depository.

Requesting a Search

IRAD welcomes mail and telephone requests from researchers interested in genealogy and local history. The regional depositories are unable to receive or send requests by e-mail. Please direct inquiries to the depository holding the records you wish to have searched. Click here for Depository Addresses and click here for a Map of the IRAD Regions.

In order for depository staff to conduct a search of the IRAD holdings, researchers should provide the following information:

- The full names of the persons they are researching
- The approximate year when these persons are expected to appear in the records
- The county which created the records
- Record titles/types to search

Include any additional information that may assist in locating the person or information requested (such as township or precinct for searches of tax and election records).

Researchers also are asked to limit requests to two (2) names at a time and to wait for a response to one request before submitting another one. Inquiries should be sent directly to the depository holding the records of the county to be searched.

Fees

The research services of the IRAD system are provided at no charge. Therefore, when requesting information by mail a self-addressed stamped envelope is not necessary. However, there may be a photocopy fee for which you will be billed. Unless an expenditure limit is set in advance by the researcher, authorization to produce photocopies will be requested for billings that exceed $5.00.

Tips on Using the Illinois Statewide Death Index

- Click here for helpful hints on searching the Illinois Statewide Death Index, 1916–1950.
- If you are using Netscape, version 4.79 or below, it may be necessary to select a smaller or larger text size to align the column headings in your browser depending on your monitor's screen resolution. Text size can be changed under the View menu by clicking Increase Font (Ctrl+]) or Decrease Font (Ctrl+[).
- To print the list of deaths from the results screen, set your printer's page orientation to landscape.
- Death records were recorded in the county where the death occurred and not necessarily in the county were the decedent resided. If your search does not find a death record in the county where you expected it to occur, try selecting STATEWIDE in the location option box.
- Death certificates filed after 1947 are not currently available in the Illinois State Archives Reference Room. For deaths occurring after 1947, the death date will appear in RED.
- Click below for information about how to obtain copies of death certificates in Illinois:
  - Copies of death certificates after 1915.
  - Copies of death certificates before 1916.

Newspapers for Illinois Genealogical Research

Newspapers contain a wealth of information of interest to genealogists and historians. Obituaries and marriage and birth announcements are commonly found in newspapers. In many locations, the executor of an estate is or was required to advertise that the estate was being settled - often the newspapers have these advertisements. Sometimes you find information about who is moving into or leaving a community.

Newspapers also give a window into the life of the time and location. In small town newspapers, you often find references that Aunt Sally went to shopping in the big city, or that Cousin Joe broken his arm falling out of the apple tree.

For an example of what you may find, take a look at some extracts from the 1880s from a small town newspaper called the Leon Indicator, Leon, Butler County, Kansas. These are extracts about the Beadles family who moved to Kansas from Fulton County, IL, as well as other Illinois names and places which I recognized.

- General News - Extracts from the Leon Indicator Newspaper (sample)
- Obituaries and Estate Notices (Samples)

Newspapers can be tedious to use, but they are valuable resource you won't want to miss.

Their report in 1994 stated they had 4,900 titles. Most are available on microfilm for interlibrary loan (more than 71,000 reels in 1994). The collection is being catalogued through OCLC.

Periodically, the Illinois State Library publishes a special report listing the titles available through the Historical Library, as well as titles known to have been published. Anyone who has missing titles or issues are asked to contact the library. The last published listing (I think) was:

Newspapers in the Historical Library, Illinois State Library Special Report Series, Vol. 1 Issue 1, 1994, Cheryl Pence (guest editor), George H. Ryan, Secretary of State of Illinois and State Librarian.

This book has 144 pages of titles and issue dates for Illinois newspapers and a few non-Illinois newspapers. The book is organized alphabetically by city or town of publication. There is also an alphabetical listing of counties which lists those towns in each county with further listings in the book.

You will also want to check the web site ILLINOIS NEWSPAPER PROJECT which provides similar information. http://www.library.uiuc.edu/techserv/inp/webpages/main.htm

Contact your local library for assistance in obtaining film on interlibrary loan.

The Military Tract

In May 1812, an act of Congress was passed which set aside bounty lands as payment to volunteer soldiers for the War against the British (War of 1812). The land was set aside in the present states of Arkansas, Michigan and Illinois.

The bounty land in Illinois is located in the western part of the state between the Illinois and Mississippi Rivers [see map below on this page]. It includes all of the present counties of Adams, Brown, Calhoun, Fulton, Hancock, Henderson, Knox, McDonough, Mercer, Peoria, Pike, Schuyler, Stark, and Warren Counties. It also includes part of Henry and Bureau Counties, and those parts of Marshall and Putnam which are on the west side of the Illinois River. The area comprises about 5.4 Million acres. Approximately 3.5 Million was deemed fit for cultivation and was set aside for military bounties.

The tract was surveyed in 1815-1816 and opened to settlement. Then warrants for land were issued by the government. Many of these land grants can be found by searching Illinois Public Land Sales. For an explanation of the way the land in these grants are surveyed, see Federal Township-Range Survey System.

Newspaper Search Policy for Non-Illinois Residents

Beginning January 01, 1996, the Illinois State Historical Library instituted some changes in the newspaper search policy for non-Illinois residents. As time permits, staff will still attempt to fulfill requests for information from newspapers. The Historical Library does not have census records or official local records such as birth and death certificates. Our holdings consist of non-indexed newspapers representing all 102 Illinois counties and most of their major cities. Searching is a very time-consuming process, and we require specific information to perform a reasonable search. Guidelines are as follows:

1. Request no more than four (4) searches per letter.

2. Include a non-refundable payment of $10.00 for each search requested. We do not recommend sending cash, but rather encourage payment by check or money order payable to the Illinois State Historical Library.

3. Do not send another letter of request(s) until we have responded to your first one.

4. Give specific information. Requests must provide the individuals full name and exact date and place (month, day, and year as well as city/town and county) of the event in question. Please be sure to type or print legibly.

5. If you do not have the specific information needed for a reasonable search by our staff, you may borrow our newspapers on microfilm via interlibrary loan through your local library to do your own research. (United States only)

6. If our search is unsuccessful, you will be notified of that fact.

7. Each letter of request must include a SASE, (self-addressed, stamped business- sized) #10 envelope.

SUBJECT HEADING GUIDE

During the indexing process each news item and advertisement was given one or more subject headings to enable the user to quickly identify materials relating to a particular broad subject area. The various subject headings are listed below along with short definitions of each. Our object was to make the meanings of the headings as self-evident as possible. Thus, all advertisements for medicines or physicians may be found under the heading admed.; all death notices may be found under d.; and so on.

Users will find that the general and advertisement headings tend to overlap to some extent and that it is advisable to check both listings when searching for materials. For example, a person interested in medicine during this period should refer to both med. and admed.

WARNINGS!!

PAGE NUMBERING

Warning about microfilm page numbers! The user should be aware that the microfilm of the original four-page Belfast Newsletter issues that is most frequently used in conjunction with this index was sometimes filmed out of order. The pages of the original hardcopies of the newspapers are not numbered, and, when microfilmed, were often photographed out of the normal order; that is, instead of appearing on the microfilm in the order pages 1, 2, 3 4, they appear as pages 1, 3, 2, 4.

When The Belfast Newsletter Index was prepared, great pains were taken to ensure the accuracy of the page numbering. Pages one and four are readily identifiable by The Belfast Newsletter masthead at the top of page one and by the publisher's name and address, which is usually printed across all columns at the bottom of page four. If the user of the microfilm cannot locate a citation which these listings indicate should be found on page 2, he or she should also consult page 3 (and vice versa), as these pages are often reversed in the microfilm.

Along the same lines, another problem with pagination has been noted for those using the original bound copies of the newspapers. The Belfast Newsletter indexers worked from bound copies of the original newspapers loaned to them by The Linen Hall Library in Belfast. We have discovered that when these newspapers were being bound by the Library it was evidently thought necessary (in some volumes) to reverse the second sheet of the newspaper. In other words, in some bound volumes pages 3 and 4 are back to front. Since in the originals the pages are not numbered, the unsuspecting reader naturally thinks that he or she is reading page 3, when, in fact, he may, in fact, be reading page 4.

This problem exists for most of the issues for the years 1738, 1739, 1753, 1755, 1757, 1758, 1760, 1762, 1764, 1768, and 1792. In this database the correct page number is provided. Therefore, if you are unable to find an item on page 3, you should also look on page 4(and vice versa), since the page may have been bound out of order.

Other areas that may lead to misunderstanding:

Variant Spellings

The user should also be aware that during the 18th century it was not unusual for people to spell words, even their own names, in a variety of ways. The Belfast Newsletter indexers transcribed the words from the newspapers exactly as they appear in the original, without making silent editorial changes. Therefore, the user interested in finding every possible reference to the name "Abbot" looks also under the entries for "Abbott" (with two "t"s) and any other reasonable spellings (with one "b"?). The Wildcard facility will be useful in this respect.

Surviving Issues

The user needs to be aware that a nearly complete run of The Belfast Newsletter has survived for the years 1754 through 1800; however, only about one-quarter of the issues for the years 1737 through 1753 are extant. See extant issues.

Advertisements

Users should also note that in the case of advertisements only the first appearance of each ad. has been indexed, despite the obvious fact that the identical advertisement may have been printed in successive issues of the newspaper. If an advertisement was changed in any way subsequent to its first appearance, it was re-indexed. This was done because of computer memory requirements at the time of index preparation.

Please acknowledge the assistance of the Belfast Newsletter Index in resulting publications. This will help us to document its usefulness and may assist us to procure future grants to index Irish newspapers.

How to Make a Search

UNDER CONSTRUCTION

To search The Belfast Newsletter Index database, you must first specify a term or combination of terms that you want the computer to find (fill in one or more windows on the Main Search Form). Next, you tell the computer to display the items it finds on your computer screen. You may then print the results or download them to your own computer.

To search the database, enter one or more terms in the windows. After entering the term(s), submit the query by clicking on the "Submit Search" button at the bottom of the form. The results of the search will be displayed automatically in a Query Report (ten items at a time).

You may search the following categories of information:

(1) Person's Last Name

(2) Person's First Name

(3) Place Name

(4) Ship's Name

(5) Subject Heading

(6) Keyword

(7) Document ID

The following is a sample multi-query search:

Type one or more entries (one only to a window)

or type a stem followed by * for wild card search: not case s

For more information about search click HELP below.

RULES:

- A "term" can be a single word or several related words, depending on the window. Currently only one "term" can be entered in each window and only one of the seven windows may contain the wildcard character (*).
- Entering terms in two or more windows implies the logic of AND. That is, the newspaper items retrieved must contain ALL of the terms submitted.

The nature of a "term" differs slightly, depending on the window:

- Person's Last Name query: enter all of a surname (or a stem with wild card). Surnames usually consist of one word, such as Kennedy, but in some special cases, such as company names, may comprise several words, such as Kennedy and Cochran. In the 18th century, surnames often had several variant spellings so it is usually worth while to do a wildcard search for a name stem.
- Person's First Name query: enter either a person's first name, abbreviated first name, initial or title. Military titles when a part of a name are always abbreviated, eg. Gen., Lt., etc.
- Place Name query: enter the entire topographical name. For example: New York
- Ship's Name query: also may involve two or more words. For example: Queen of Spain
- Subject Heading query: enter only one term at a time selected from the Subject Heading List.
- Keyword (a keyword is any term not included in the other six boxes)enter only one word at a time.
- Document ID. These can be searched for only one item at a time. Document ID can only be obtained after a search has been executed.

Wildcard Searches

The wildcard character (*) can be used in a variety of situations in any window, but is particularly useful when the exact spelling of a term is not known. Only one of the seven windows may contain a wildcard search.

The wildcard character may be used anywhere in a string: e.g. the Person's Last Name search Washingto* will retrieve every Person's Last Name beginning with the string "Washingto"

The wildcard character (*) may be used internally: e.g. Washin*ton (will retrieve every Person's Last Name beginning with "Washin" and ending "ton" or at the beginning of a string, e.g. *ashington

The following is a sample Wildcard Search for a Person's Last Name beginning with the string Greenla*

Type one or more entries (one only to a window)

or type a stem followed by * for wild card search: not case s

Wildcard searches are retrieved into a Wildcard Query Report that allows the user to further refine the search. The user may wish to retrieve all of the terms (click ALL) or only selected ones (one at a time).

What To Do After Retrieval of Documents

After retrieving the documents to any Query Result Report, you may print the Report as it appears on the screen by clicking the Print icon on your browser's Navigation toolbar, or you can download the results to your own computer by clicking on File, then Save As (procedure may vary depending on the web browser used).

Once you have identified the issue date and page number you can see the item in its original entirety by going to the original newspaper (or, more frequently, a microfilm version).

Users should be careful not to assume that the quasi-abstract is the literal wording of the original. In this index "insignificant" words, such as connectives, conjunctions, prepositions, were usually not included. Words that appeared more than once in the same item were only indexed one time.

Identically-worded advertisements that appeared more than once in the same or subsequent newspapers were indexed only the first time they appeared.

Users should be careful not to assume that the quasi-abstract is the literal wording of the original. In this index "insignificant" words, such as connectives, conjunctions, prepositions, were usually not included. Words that appeared more than once in the same item were only indexed one time.

Identically-worded advertisements that appeared more than once in the same or subsequent newspapers were indexed only the first time they appeared.

Understanding the Abstract Column

Please note that it is NOT necessary to use the symbols and slashes that you see in the ABSTRACT column when making searches. The following information is provided only to help you to understand the ABSTRACT column of a Query Report.

What follows is the Query Result for ABSTRACT:

ABSTRACT :
$Ranger sloop–of–war =Jones,Capt. impressed seamen sailed +Ply

SYMBOLS:

There are three symbols used in the ABSTRACT column:

- The (=) equal sign denotes a personal name, eg. =Finlay,George
- The + sign denotes a place name, eg. +Belfast
- The $ denotes a ship name, eg. $Ranger

One of these symbols is placed immediately in front of a word to indicate that the word designates a person, a place or a ship and to differentiate it from other words with which it might otherwise be confused. For example, if you saw the word "Antrim" you would have no way of knowing if the reference was to the person (the Earl of Antrim), the place, or the ship of that name. But it becomes immediately clear when the word is written so: $Antrim.

SPACING:

In the ABSTRACT column the spaces between words of a multi-worded name (whether it be a personal, place, or ship name) are filled in with slashes or exclamation marks. These may be ignored by the user.

For example, the ship Charming Nancy becomes: $Charming/Nancy The person Mr. John Jones becomes: =Jones,John/Mr. The place High Street becomes: +High!St. Note also that while slashes / are used in personal and ship names, the exclamation mark is used in place names

REPEAT: It is NOT necessary to use these symbols when making searches.

SPELLING:

With very few exceptions, the text of the original Belfast Newsletter was transcribed into the database exactly as it appears in the original. The user should be aware that spellings during the 18th century were not as fixed as they are today; consequently, common words may be spelled in a variety of ways. For example, today's "jail" may be spelled "gaol" or even "goal" in The Belfast Newsletter. The city of Coleraine is spelled over a dozen different ways.

Therefore, the user will often benefit from performing a wildcard search for words with many potential variants. This is done by placing an asterick () within or at the end of a string of letters. For example, to find the variant spelling of Coleraine one might submit the wildcard search "Col" in the Place Name box. This will retrieve all places in the database beginning with the string "Col".

ABBREVIATIONS:

A few words have been silently abbreviated, but only when they are used in association with other words. For example, street becomes St. in +High!St.; road becomes Rd. in +Dublin!Rd.; General becomes Gen. in =Washington,Gen.; Lieutenant becomes Lt., etc.

PERSONAL NAMES:

All European personal names and titles are formatted by placing the surname first followed by the other names and/or titles. The symbol for a personal name is the =. Non-European names, such as Suliman Bey Oglou, are not treated in this way. They are left as they appear in the text and without the = sign. Therefore, to search for a non-European name one must search in the KEYWORD category and not in the PERSON NAME category.

Examples:

- Smith becomes =Smith
- Mr. John Smith becomes =Smith,John/Mr.
- Sir John Smith becomes =Smith,John/Sir
- the King of France becomes =France,King/of
- Genghis Khan must be searched for in the KEYWORD box.

PLACE NAMES:

Place names designate a geographical place, but not buildings, such as castles, palaces, etc. Therefore Dublin Castle is not treated as a place although Dublin is. All place names are preceded by + in the abstract. Examples: +High!St. +New!England

The names of Irish counties have been treated somewhat differently. In all cases the county name is abbreviated to "Co." Thus, County Down becomes Co. +Down.

AUGUSTA COUNTY, VIRGINIA FULTONS

Due to the Augusta County Courthouse fire that destroyed some of the early records, other sources and affidavits have had to be used to trace the families. Since I cannot firmly document the connection between the different Fulton families in Augusta County I have presented them separately so you could draw your own conclusions. If you have additional documentation that confirms or contradicts what I have published here, please contact me at: njennings@lisco.net

Fultons in Ireland and New England - Fulton immigration records for New England is new information.

CREDITS:

This work would not be complete without a tribute to the late Katherine Bushman who did extensive work in researching the Fulton Family in Augusta County, Virginia for me and my correspondents. I also would like to thank Virginia Kane, George Fulton, Barbara Fahey, Tillie Gore, and all others who have sent me their personal data to add to what we have. If I have omitted anyone, my apologies as it took the contributions of many people to make this work complete.

We have Trevor Fulton to thank for the extensive work he has done on the Fulton Family in Ireland. This adds an entire new dimension to these pages.

I am also indebted to George Fulton for his contributions on his branch of our Fulton Family known as the Missouri Fultons.

The Revolutionary War records were obtained from the National Archives.
The Deeds, Land Records and Wills were obtained from the Augusta County, Virginia Clerk's Office with the help of Mrs. Bushman.

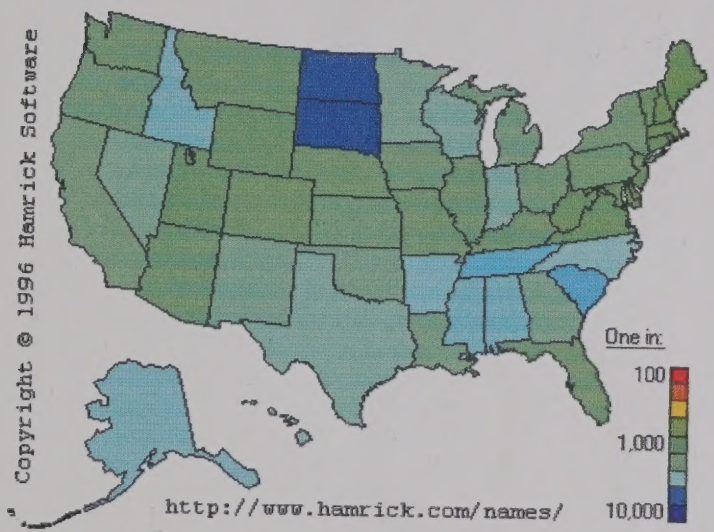
KENNEY Surname Distribution



The color of each state indicates how frequently you will find someone with this surname in each state. For instance, if a state is colored red, then 1 in 100 people (or more) in that state have the surname. Similarly, yellow means approximately 1 in 300 have the surname, green means 1 in 1000, and blue means 1 in 10,000 (or less).

I am interested in your William Robert Fulton b. 19 July 1856, Washington, WC., Iowa. My ancestors lived in Washington County, but there were two families there. One descended from James Fulton of Butler County, Pennsylvania and the other Descended from James, William, or John Fulton, from Augusta County, Virginia. There is a branch of the Augusta, Virginia family that went to Wayne County, Missouri, not Wayne County, Ohio. The birthdate of Robert Campbell Fulton of 24 November 1817 is close but not exact to your Robert Fulton b. 3 November 1816. He was the son of John Fulton, grandson of Hugh Fulton and Sarah Campbell. Every family has a tale of being related to Robert Fulton, the inventor but none have ever been proved since he had no male heirs and his parentage is even rather iffy at this point. The William Fultons I know about in Washington County were all descended from the two forementioned lines. I live close enough to Washington to double check this when my husband completes his treatments. What else can you add to your William Robert Fulton? I am looking for descendents of a Robert Fulton b. 2-8-1899,son of William Fulton b. 1861 and Lottie Amelia Yager, William Fulton was son of Hugh Fulton, son of William Fulton, son of James Fulton of Augusta County Virginia. Robert (1899) had children Marylin abt. 1923, Helen b. abt 1925, Roberta b. abt 1927, and Robert, jr. b. abt 1928. Have a couple photos with info on back.Norma Jennings

THE NAME AND FAMILY OF FULTON

The name of FULTON is believed to have been originally derived from the residence of its first bearers at a village of that name on the border of Roxburgh County, Scotland, which is now extinct. It is found on ancient British records in the various spellings of Fultoun, Fultowne, Fultown, Foultoun, Foultoune, Fowlton, Fultoune, Fultone, and Fulton, of which the form last mentioned is that most generally accepted in America today.

Families of this name were to be found at early dates in the English Counties of Cambridge and London; in the Scotch Counties of Roxburgh, Ayr, Renfrew, and Lanark; and in the Irish Counties of Antrim, Down, and Derry. They were, for the most part, of the landed gentry and yeomanry of Great Britain.

Among the earliest records of the name are those of Thomas de Fultown of Ayrshire before 1272, who had a wife named Matilda and at least one son, Allan, and possibly two others, Nicol and Henry; John de Fultone of Cambridgeshire in 1273; and numerous others of later dates.

The Ayrshire line of the family was represented in the year 1500 by John de Fowlton, who was probably the ancestor of John de Foultoun, who held the same lands in 1554 and is believed to have been succeeded by another John, who may possibly have been the father of William Fulton, who was living in the County of Ayr in 1585. This William Fulton was the father of, among others, a son named John, who was probably the father of John and Hugh, of whom the first was married in 1670 to Jean Connel, by whom he had issue of James and William. Of these two sons, William was the father by his wife Martha Clerk, whom he married in 1714, of a son named John, who married Janet Craig in 1737 and was the father by her of John, William, and Robert.

Another branch of the Ayrshire family descended from Reverend Dr. Fulton, who was living in the early seventeenth century. He was probably the father or grandfather of the Reverend Robert Fulton, who settled in Ireland in the latter half of the seventeenth century. This Reverend Robert of Ireland was the father of Richard, who had issue by his wife, Margaret Camac, of James and John, of whom the latter was the father by his wife Anne Wade, whom he married shortly before 1750, of Joseph, James, John, and several daughters.

Although it is not entirely clear, in every case, from which of the many lines of the family in England, Scotland, and Ireland, the first emigrants of the name to America were descended, it is generally believed that most, if not all, of the Fultons derive from a common ancestor of a remote period.

The first of the name in America was Henry Fulton, who emigrated to Virginia in the year 1638 and settled in Charles City County. No record, however, has been found of his immediate family or descendants.

In the early eighteenth century James Fulton, whose ancestry is not known, was living in Rockbridge County, Va. In the year 1753 he died, leaving eight children, Hugh, James, William, David, Thomas, Elizabeth, Eleanor, and Jane.

One Richard Fulton came from Londonderry, Ireland, to Lancaster County, Pa., in 1722. He married Isabel McChesney in the year 1744 and had issue of William, Jean, Richard, Isabel, Grizzle, and Joseph. Of these children, the son Richard had issue by his wife, Mary Willson, of Isabel, John, Richard, Hayes, and Mary; and the son Joseph married Elizabeth Elder in 1780 and had at least one son, named Richard, and possibly others as well.

About 1730 Gowen Fulton came from County Derry, Ireland, to Boston, Mass., whence he later removed to Topsham, Me. He brought with him his wife, Margaret Caswell, and their son John and had further issue here of James and Robert.

John Fulton, whose relationship, if any, to the other southern branches is not known, was living in Rockbridge County, Va., about the middle of the eighteenth century. He died in the year 1804, leaving issue by his wife Jean of David, John, Robert, Mary, Sarah, Jean, Elizabeth, and Martha.

In 1753 another John Fulton came from Lanarkshire, Scotland, to Chester County, Pa., with his wife Eleanor and three small children, Mary, Elizabeth, and James. He had further issue here of a son named John and two daughters, Jane and Susan. Of the sons of this line, James married Margaret Miller and was the father by her of John, Rachel, Joseph, Eleanor, Miller, and James; and John married first Margaret Dickey, by whom he had Mary, Elizabeth, and John, and later married Esther Copper, who gave him further issue of Thomas, James, Andrew, Jemima, Jefferson, George, Eleanor, and Matthew.

Robert Fulton of Kilkenny, Ireland, was living in Lancaster County, Pa., prior to the year 1765. By his wife, Mary Smith, he was the father of the noted inventor of the steamboat, Robert Fulton, and possibly of others, among whom may have been the James Fulton who is sometimes recorded as the son of one Robert Fulton and who married Hannah Ellis in 1772.

Still another John Fulton came from Ireland to Rhinebeck, N.Y., about the year 1770. By his wife, Elizabeth Tetor, he was the father there of Catharine, Isabella, Henry, John, Ephraim, and David.

The offspring of these and probably of other lines of the family in America have scattered to every State of the Union and have played a worthy role in the advancement of American civilization. They have been characterized in general by energy, industry, thrift, tenacity of purpose, and resolute will.

Among those of the name who fought in the War of the Revolution were James and Robert, of Virginia; Alexander, Francis, and John, of New York; and numerous others from the various other New England and southern states.

Thomas, John, Robert, Richard, James, Joseph, Henry, David, William, and Andrew are some of the Christian names most favored by the family for its male progeny.

A few of the members of the family who have distinguished themselves in America in more recent times are:

Albert Cooley Fulton (b. 1872), of Indiana, clergyman.

Charles Darby Fulton (b. 1892), born in Japan of American parents, church official.

Charles Herman Fulton (b. 1874), born in Germany of American parents, metallurgist.

Frank Taylor Fulton (b. 1867), of Pennsylvania, physician.

John Allen Fulton (b. 1878), of Nevada, mining engineer.

John Farquhar Fulton (b. 1899), of Minnesota, physiologist and author.

Maurice Garland Fulton (b. 1877), of Mississippi, college professor and author.

William Pomeroy Fulton (b. 1856), of Pennsylvania, clergyman.

Probably the most ancient and best known of the variations of the coat of arms of the British family of Fulton is that described as follows (Burke, General Armory, 1884):

Arms.--"Or (sometimes, argent), a lion rampant azure."

WHY YOU HAVE A FAMILY NAME AND WHAT IT MEANS

Primitive personal names doubtless originated soon after the invention of spoken language, in the dark ages long preceding recorded history. For thousands of years thereafter first or given names were the only designations that men and women bore; and at the dawn of historic times, when the world was less crowded than it is today and every man knew his neighbor, one title of address was sufficient. Only gradually, with the passing centuries and the increasing complexity of civilized society, did a need arise for more specific designations. While the roots of our system of family names may be traced back to early civilized times, actually the hereditary surname as we know it today dates from scarcely more than nine hundred years ago.

A surname is a name added to a baptismal or given name for the purposes of making it more specific and of indicating family relationship or descent. Classified according to origin, most surnames fall into four general groups: (1) those formed from the given name of the sire; (2) those arising from bodily or personal characteristics; (3) those derived from locality or place of residence; and (4) those derived from occupation. It is easier to understand the story of the development of our institution of surnames if these classifications are borne in mind.

As early as Biblical times certain distinguishing appellations were occasionally employed in addition to the given name, as, for instance, Joshua the son of Nun, Azariah the son of Nathan, Judas of Galilee, and Simon the Zealot. In ancient Greece a daughter was named after her father, as Chryseis, daughter of Chryses; and a son's name was often an enlarged form of his father's, as Hieronymus, son of Hiero. The Romans, with the rise of their civilization, met the need for hereditary designations by inventing a complex system whereby every patrician took several names. None of them, however, exactly corresponded to surnames as we know them, for the "clan name", although hereditary, was given also to slaves and other dependents. This system proved to be but a temporary innovation; the overthrow of the Western Empire by barbarian invaders brought about its end and a reversion to the primitive custom of a single name.

The ancient Scandinavians and for the most part the Germans had only individual names, and there were no family names, strictly speaking, among the Celts. But as family and tribal groups grew in size, individual names became inadequate and the need for supplementary designations began to be felt. Among the first employed were such terms as the Hardy, the Stern, the Dreadful-in-Battle; and the nations of northern Europe soon adopted the practice of adding the father's name to the son's, as Oscar son of Carnuth and Dermid son of Duthno.

True surnames, in the sense of hereditary appellations, date in England from about the year 1000. Largely they were introduced from Normandy, although there are records of Saxon surnames prior to the Norman Conquest. During the reign of Edward the Confessor (1042-1066) there were Saxon tenants in Suffolk bearing such names as Suert Magno, Stigand Soror, Siuward Rufus, and Leuric Hobbesune (Hobson); and the Domesday record of 1085-1086, which exhibits some curious combinations of Saxon forenames with Norman family names, shows surnames in still more general use. By the end of the twelfth century hereditary names had become common in England. But even by 1465 they were not universal. During the reign of Edward V a law was passed to compel certain Irish outlaws to adopt surnames: "They shall take unto them a Surname, either of some Town, or some Colour, as Blacke or Brown, or some Art or Science, as Smyth or Carpenter, or some Office, as Cooke or Butler." And as late as the beginning of the nineteenth century a similar decree compelled Jews in Germany and Austria to add a German surname to the single names that they had previously used.

As stated above, family names fall into four general classes according to their origin. One of these classes comprises surnames derived from the given name of the father. Such names were formed by adding a prefix or suffix denoting either "son of" or a diminutive. English names terminating in son (or the contraction s), ing, and kin are of this type, as are also the innumerable names prefixed with the Gaelic Mac, the Norman Fitz, the Irish O, and the Welsh ap. Thus the sons of John became Johnsons; the sons of William, Williamsons or Wilsons; the sons of Richard, Richardsons or Richardses; the sons of Neill, MacNeills; the sons of Herbert, FitzHerberts; the sons of Reilly, O'Reillys and the sons of Thomas, ap Thomases (ap has been dropped from many names of which it was formerly a part). There are also German, Netherlandish, Scandinavian, and other European surnames of similar formation, such as the Scandinavian names ending in sen.

Another class of surnames, those arising from some bodily or personal characteristic of their first bearer, apparently grew out of what were in the first instance nicknames. Thus Peter the strong became Peter Strong, Roger of small stature became Roger Little or Roger Small, and black-haired William or blond Alfred became William Black or Alfred White. A few examples of names of this type are Long, Short, Hardy, Wise, Good, Gladman, Lover, and Youngman.

A third class of family names, and perhaps the largest of all, is that comprising local surnames--names derived from and originally designating the place of residence of the bearer. Such names were employed in France at an early date and were introduced into England by the Normans, many of whom were known by the titles of their estates. The surnames adopted by the nobility were chiefly of this type, being used with the particles de, de la, or del (meaning "of" or "of the"). The Saxon equivalent was the word atte ("at the"), found in such names as John atte Brook, Edmund atte Lane, Godwin atte Brigg, and William atte Bourne. A vestige of this usage survives in the names Atwell, Atwood, and Atwater; in other cases the Norman de was substituted; and in still others, such as Wood, Briggs, and Lane, the particle was dropped. The surnames of some of the Pilgrim Fathers illustrate place designations. Winthrop, for instance, means "of the friendly village"; Endicott, "an end cottage"; and Bradford, "a broad for". The suffixes "ford", "ham", "ley", and "ton", denoting locality, are of frequent occurrence in such English names as Ashford, Bingham, Burley, and Norton.

Commencing about the time of Edward the Confessor a fourth class of surnames arose--names derived from occupation. The earliest of these seem to have been official names, such as Bishop, Mayor, Alderman, Reeve, Sheriff, Chamberlain, Chancellor, Chaplain, Deacon, Latimer (interpreter), Marshall, Sumner (summoner), and Parker (parkkeeper). Trade and craft names, although of the same general type, were slightly later development. Currier was a dresser of skins, Webster a weaver, Wainwright a wagonbuilder, and Baxter a baker. Such names as Smith, Taylor, Barber, Shepherd, Carter, Mason, and Miller are self-explanatory.

Some surnames of today which seem to defy classification or explanation are corruptions of ancient forms that have become disguised almost beyond recognition. For instance, Troublefield was originally Tuberville, Wrinch was Renshaw, Diggles was Douglas, Sinnocks and Snooks were Sevenoaks, Barrowcliff and Berrycloth were Barraclough, and Strawbridge was Stourbridge. Such corruptions of family names, resulting from ignorance of spelling, variations in pronunciation, or merely from the preference of the bearer, tend to baffle both the genalogist and the etymologist. Shakespeare's name is found in some twenty-seven different forms, and the majority of English and Anglo-American surnames have, in their history, appeared in four to a dozen or more variant spellings.

In the United States a greater variety of family names exists than anywhere else in the world. Surnames of every race and nation are represented. While a substantial number are of English, Scotch, Irish, Welsh, and western European origin, brought to this country by scions of families that had borne these names for generations prior to emigration, many others have come from central and southern Europe and the Slavic countries, where the use of surnames is generally a more recently established practice. Some families had no fixed surname until after their arrival in America; and in other cases emigrants from continental Europe or their descendants have translated or otherwise modified their names. These factors contribute to the difficulties encountered by students of etymology and family history.

Those Americans who possess old and honored names--who trace their surnames back to sturdy immigrant ancestors, or beyond, across the seas and into the mists of antiquity--may be rightfully proud of their heritage. While the name, in its origin, may seem ingenious, humble, surprising, or matter-of-fact, its significance today lies not in a literal interpretation of its initial meaning but in the many things that have happened to it since it first came into use. In the beginning it was only a label to distinguish one John from his neighbor John who lived across the field. But soon it established itself as part of the bearer's individuality; and as it passed to his children, his children's children, and their children, it became the symbol not of one man but of a family and all that that family stood for. Handed down from generation to generation, the surname grew inseparably associated with the achievement, the tradition, and the prestige of the family. Like the coat of arms--that vivid symbolization of the name which warrior ancestors bore in battle--the name itself has become a badge of family honor. It has become the "good name" to be proud of and to protect as one's most treasured possession.

Fulton Tower Location:

"Bedrule, a hamlet and a parish of Teviotdale, central Roxburghshire. The hamlet, lying on the right bank of Rule Water, 4 1/4 miles WSW of Jedburgh, its posttown and railway station, consists of the parish church (rebuilt about 1803; 140 sittings), the manse, the school, and a few scattered cottages. Close to it on a grassy knoll, are scanty traces of an ancient castle, the stronghold of the Turnbulls, where about 1494, 200 of that fierce Border clan were brought before James IV, with halters round their necks and naked swords in their hands.

The parish is bounded NW by Ancrum, NE and E by Jedburgh, S by Hobkirk, and W by Hobkirk and Cavers. It has an extreme length from N to S of 4 1/2 miles, a width from E to W of from 1 to 2 3/8 miles, and an area of 3952 1/8 acres, of which 35 are water. RULE Water traces nearly all the western, the TEVIOT more roughly the north-western, boundary; and the surface has a general eastward rise to DUNIAN Hill (1095 feet above sea-level), Black Law (1110), and Watch Knowe (957). The rocks belong mainly to the Silurian system, but partly also to the Devonian; the soils of the uplands are thin and poor, in places spongy, while those of the haughs are occasionally argillaceous, but chiefly a rich sandy loam super incumbent on gravel. In the S the peel tower of Fulton stands, fairly perfect, on a greensward slope, confronting 'dark Ruberslaw' (1392 feet) across the Rule; northward are a hill-fort and the sites of Ruecastle (burned in Lord Dacre's raid, 1513; and again in Hertford's 1545) and Newton Tower. William Turnbull, Bishop of Glasgow from 1448 to 1454, was probably a native of this parish;... Bedrule is in the presbytery of Jedburgh and synod of Merse and Teviotdale;... Fulton Tower Floor Plan:

FULTON NT 605158 "This ruin stands on moorland above the Rule River. The tower was held by Margaret Home in the 1570s before her marriage to William Turnbull. It consisted of a main block 9.3m by 7m over walls 1.2m thick. The unvaulted basement has gunports. The hall above has a fireplace at the west end. Not much remains of the third storey bedrooms or of the staircase wing on the SE side." Fulton Tower's Last Occupant:

At Fulton, once a separate village and farm, but now united to Bedrule, there is a considerable ruin of one of those strongholds called Border Peels. There are three side walls pretty entire, and of great thickness and solidarity. The building is about the usual size, of a square form, with loop-holes in the wall, for the discharge of arrows. There is a tradition in the country, that the last person who inhabited this Peel was one of the Turnbulls, between whom and the Kers of Fernihirst (sic) there was a deadly feud. A band of the latter came to seize Turnbull, and having got access by stealth into the tower, came upon him, who, never dreaming of such a visit, was holding his infant child on his knee, while the gudewife prepared the sowens for supper, and amusing it by singing the old Scottish ballad,

Little wat ye wha's coming,
Jock and Tam and a''s coming.

The Kers rushing in upon him exclaimed, "Little wat ye wha's coming" indeed, and were proceeding to seize him. Turnbull, though thus totally unprepared, leaped up and seized his sword, and being a powerful man, was preparing for resistance, but was withheld by the tears and entreaties of his wife, who clung to him and prevented further resistance. What became of him, after he had thus fallen into the hands of his enemies , the writer has not been able to learn." Border Wardens:

"In an attempt to regulate and govern the Border region more effectively, the two governments had reached an agreement in 1249 known as the Law of the Marches. By its terms both sides of the Border were divided into three wards – East, West, and Middle Marches – each to be administered both judicially and militarily by a Lord Warden, the first being appointed in 1297. On the Scottish (East March) side the Wardenship was usually held by the Home family who, from their fortress at Home Castle, guarded the richly fertile coastal plain known as the Merse. Incorporating the Sheriffdoms of Selkirk, Roxburgh and Peebles, its (the Scottish Middle March) judicial centre was Jedburgh where justice courts were held, and its Warden, usually the Kerrs, resided at their castles of Fernihurst and Cessford. The Scottish Middle March was also the home of the notorious 'Thirsty' or 'Crowdie' and Liddesdale. Infested with towers and 'strong houses' these grim little valleys were home to Scotts, Elliots, Armstrongs, 'great surnames and most offensive to England', and it was men of these families who persistently launched some of the largest and most devastating raids into the English East and Middle March. No-one was safe from their plundering, Scotts or English, and redress was hard to obtain.

Remote and inaccessible, Liddesdale in particular was a veritable robbers' roost and the blatant lawlessness of its inhabitants necessitated the appointment of an additional Warden, or Keeper. Residing in the forbidding and gloomy fortress of Hermitage Castle, 'the strength of Liddesdale', these Keepers, at the end of the 16th century, included the likes of James Hepburn, 4th Earl of Bothwell, and Sir Walter Scott of Buccleuch, dangerous rogues who were, more often than not, in deep collusion with the thieves and raiders they were charged to control, and 'wynked' at their nightly depredations." The Border Reivers, The Story of the Anglo-Scottish Borderland by Keith Durham and Angus McBride, edited by Lee Johnson, Reed Consumer Books, Ltd., London, England, 1995, p 5-6.

"The criminal traffic across the Middle March frontier was enormous; it was wide, and desolate, and criss-crossed by the secret ways of the raiders, through the mosses and bogs and twisting passes of Cheviot, the "high craggy hills" above Teviotdale, and the bleak Northumberland valleys. This was the hot trod (lawful pursuit of reivers) country, the scene of the Redeswire Raid and the massive forays when as many as three thousand lances came sweeping over the moorland to harry Coquetdale or to make a smoking waste from Teviotdale to the Jed Water. No Wardens carried such a burden as those of the Middle Marches; it was, as one of them said, "an unchristianed country". Rule Water and Its People

1) "Before the Union of the Crowns, farmhouses in exposed positions were frequently built where they could communicate with a neighboring tower or peel to give timely warning of the approach of the English. Bonchester-townhead was one of these farms on the north side of Bonchester hill, and on the estate of Abbotrule. The foundations are still well defined, and in the adjoining dyke stones of large size, which were evidently used in the buidling, are numerous. It had a vaulted chamber, the ruins of which 60 years ago were distinct, and the arched roof was in places visible. The peels of Langraw and Fulton were both within sight of this defensible farmhouse; and from its elevated position a few minutes' walk commanded a view of Wauchope Castle and several of the Southdean peels. In 1645 Thomas Turnbull was the tenant. He was succeeded by his son William, who died in 1686, and a tombstone in the old churchyard of Abbotrule records his death." (page 191).

Fulton Fisherman from the Borders:

"The villages along the southern belt of the Merse along Tweedside down stream from Coldstream once rang in the early morning with the clatter of studded fishermen's boots. Ladykirk, Paxton, and Hutton at one time all had salmon fishing crews working nearby fisheries. Many of the families renting fisheries from proprietors could trace their connection back one hundred years , as could the Fulton family with the Hotham's of Milne Graden, where the little traugh fishery had been leased and worked by the former for five generations up until 1990. Discovering the Borders I by Alan Spence, John Donald Publishers, Ltd., Edinburgh, Scotland, 1992, p. 81.

Fulton Tower Materials - Questions:

One of the lingering questions has been what happened to the village of Fulton that is listed in the Beau's Atlas of 1654 ? I think after one reads some of the historical data on the Border's area, one concludes it was a miracle that anyone survived. In any case, I know that Margaret Home (I have also seen it spelled Hume) lived in the Fulton Tower in 1570 and married a Turnbull.

James VI on the 20 January 1571, granted to Margaret Hume, daughter of John Hume of Cowdenknowes, the lands of "Fultoun" and "Crocecleuch" in the barony of Bedrule. This would suggest that the Humes were not related to the Fultons and the Tower was a gift from the King (spoils of war). The Hume family members were the Scottish Wardens on the Scottish East March, but the Fulton Tower is in the Scottish Middle March. By the way, the Kerrs of Ferniehurst were the Wardens on the Scottish Middle March and we know that they had a deadly feud with the Turnbulls.

Perhaps all the male Fultons had met "Jedburgh Justice" (immediate execution with no trial) at the "Capon Tree" nearby. This huge old oak tree with its numerous limbs are just at the right height for multiple hangings. The history books explain that this sort of "Justice" occurred during both James V (1513-1542) and James VI. Some historical materials describe 24 Armstrongs and 140 of the most powerful thieves hanged on the spot. I would say that could easily explain how an entire village could be quickly decimated, especially the male inhabitants.

Gilnockie Tower Print:

An antique print obtained in Edinburgh, Scotland, of the Gilnockie Tower, a peel tower in Canonbie

An antique print obtained in Edinburgh, Scotland, of the Ormiockie Tower, a peel tower in Canonbie, Dumfries, that was the stronghold of the Armstrong family. It was located about 30 miles southwest of the Fulton Tower. It has been hand-painted with water color. When you study the picture, you feel transported back in time and can hear the water gurgling , can smell the cattle and hear them mooing, as you approach "home". The Fulton Tower probably looked very much like this one and the surroundings with all the trees is most likely how the flora was in the 1400-1500s.

Fulton Surname Derivation:

"The following preliminary sketch has been compiled from various notes made by Dr. Robert Valpy Fulton, of Dunedin, N.Z., and other sources.

With regard to the origin of the name, one writer says that Fulton, Fulltown, Fowltown, Fowlertown, Fullertown, and Fullerton come from a member of the king's household, who in A.D. 1205 was granted a royal charter by King John, to supply the royal table with game.

There are two probable roots of the name - Fugel, meaning a bird or fowl, and Ful, meaning foul, muddy, swampy, etc., the one deriving it from the locality, the other from its visitants. The name Fullerton probably had a different origin, from either a fuller, a cloth-worker, or some Saxon name like Folkher. At any rate, Fulton and its variations are from very early dates clearly distinguishable from Fullerton, and the former is never found with the later in one family.

The Fultons appear to have been of Saxon origin, and at an early date to have migrated up the east coast, eventually settling in Ayrshire, where to this day they exist in considerable numbers.

There is, however, reason to believe that the whole of the Fultons did not migrate to Scotland. It will be seen, in the remarks upon arms farther on, that there were in time of the Crusades a certain knight, Sir de Fulton de Holt - presumable the place of that name in Norfolk - and, in 1604, a Fulton family in Shropshire. There is also the indication, such as it is, afforded by the charter of King John just mentioned. At the present day, the name is of rare occurrence in England." Memoirs of the Fulton of Lisburn, compiled by Sir Thoedore C. Hope, printed for private circulation, 1903, Chapter I ,The Fulton Family, p. 9. Copy located at Belfast Linenahll Library, Belfast, Ireland, and at the New York Public Library, N.Y.

"The English surname Fulton is of local origin, being derived from the place where the original bearer once lived or held land. In this instance, the name is derived from the now extinct border village in Roxburghshire. The name is derived from Old English and means filty or muddy place, and was probably adopted as a surname by one who lived in the vicinity of a swampy piece of land. The name has also been translated as "fowl enclosure", and most likely given to one whose occupation was looking after fowl." The Historical Research Center, Family Name History for Fulton, 1991.

Fulton Surname Historical Overview:

FULLARTON, FULLERTON, FOULERTON. (1) From the barony of Fullerton in Dundonald parish, Ayrshire, in Latin de villa aucupis. Alanus de Fowlertoun who founded and endowed out of his lands a convent of Carmelite or White Friars at Irvine died c. 1280. His son, Adam de Fowlerton, had a charter of the lands of Foullartoun and Gaylis in Kyle Stewart from James the High Steward, c. 1283 (Nisbet, Plates, p. 116). A branch of the family settled in Arran, and are said to have had from Bruce a charter of the lands of Kilmichael there in 1307 with the office of coroner. In 1329 there is a record of payment of the receipts of Arran by Ade de Foulerton, and also a record if salt under his charge at Glenkill (ER., I, p. 184, 201). Rankin de Fowlartoun, dominus de Corsby, appears in 1429 (Ayr, p. 83), Johannes de Foulartoun held a tenement in Glasgow, 1487 (REG., p. 454), and John Fouller or Fullarton was first minister of Sanquhar after the Reformation (Fasti, II, p. 318). (2) In 1327 Robert I granted to Galifridus de Foullertoune the land of Foullertoun in the sheriffdom of Forfar (RMS., I, App., 79), with the office of falconer within the sheriffdom. The estate was held by the family for at least 120 years, after which they transferred themselves and their name to the parish of Meigle still called Fullarton. Stodart (p. 121) says Fullarton of Kinnaber in Angus is a branch of Fullarton of Ayrshire. David de Fowlarton was one of the assize on the marches of Woodwrae, 1388 (Bamff, p. 22), William de Foultertoune and Robert de Foulertoune witnessed transumpt of charters, 1450 (REB., I, 141) and Robert Fowlartoun de Dunovn was one of an inquest on lands of Ouchtirlowny, 1457 (RAA., II, 112). ffowlertoune 1371, ffulartone 1680, Folartoun 1447, Folertoun 1450, Fowlartoune 1532, Fulareton 1432, Fulertoun 1450, Fullarttown 1682, Fullertowne 1679, ffulertoun, Fowillertoun.

FULTON. From a place in Ayrshire which I am unable to find. There was also an old village of the name in the parish of Bedrule, Roxburghshire. Thomas de Fulton witnessed a donation to the monastery of Paisley, c. 1260, and in 1272 he witnessed a quitclaim of the land of Fulton (RMP., p. 58, 51). Thomas de Fultoun and Alan de Foulton witnessed grants by Malcolm, earl to Levenax to Paisley, 1273 (Levenax, p. 15-17; RMP., p. 103). Alan de Fulton appears again in 1284 as witness to a resignation (RMP., p. 65) Henry de Foultone of Lanarkshire rendered homage in 1296 (Bain,II, p. 212). Thomas de Fultone, vicar of the church of Irnnewyk (Innerwick), and Thomas de Fougheltone of Lanarkshire also rendered homage in same year (ibid.,p. 204,211). Robert Fultoun possessed a tenement in Irvine, 1506 (Irvine,I,p. 159), and John Fultoune possessed one in Glasgow, 1554 (Protocols,I). Robert Fulton (1765-1815) of Ulster Scots descent was the first to successfully to apply steam to navigation in the United States. Ffultoun 1669, Fulltone 1709. FULTON In Ireland:

"In Ireland Fulton is found exclusively in Ulster and mainly in Co. Antrim. Most of the early references to the name in Scotland were in Ayrshire and were in the form de Fulton, meaning 'of (the place called) Fulton'. But it has still not been established where this place was. There was a Fulton in the parish of Bedrule in Roxburghshire and some in Scotland may have taken their name from there.

Several Fulton families came to Ulster from Ayrshire in the early years of the Plantation and settled in the counties Tyrone, Derry, and Antrim. The Lisburn Fultons, in Antrim, for instance, were there in 1611. In mid-nineteenth-century Antrim, the name was found mostly in the barony of Lower Belfast, in the Carnmoney district. The Carnmoney Fultons have been there since the early eighteenth century and seem to have had some connection with the Tyrone family." Surnames of Ulster, p. 74.
